

Detailed Table of Contents

---

Chapter 1 Introduction: What ADR Means Today
Theodore J. St. Antoine .....	1
I. Overview .....	1
II. ADR in General .....	2
III. Mediation .....	3
IV. Arbitration .....	6
V. The Future of ADR .....	9
VI. Conclusion .....	13

PART I: HOW ADVOCATES START THE PROCESS

Chapter 2 Ethical Obligations to Inform Clients of the ADR Option
Benjamin Bycel .....	17
I. Introduction .....	18
II. Rules and Statutes That Govern Attorney Conduct .....	18
III. Survey of Jurisdictions That Require Mandatory Attorney Consultation With Clients Regarding ADR Options .....	23
IV. Survey of Jurisdictions That Recommend Attorney Consultation on ADR Options .....	27
V. Critical Issues .....	29
A. What Must Attorneys Do to Fulfill the Requirement to Advise Clients About ADR Under the Mandatory Rules? .....	29
B. In Jurisdictions That Require Notifying Clients of Their ADR Options, How Do Attorneys Prove That They Have Fulfilled the Requirement? .....	30

C. Can Attorneys Legitimately Bill a Client for Evaluating the Case for Its ADR Possibilities and for the Actual Consultation With the Client? .....	30
D. What Should Attorneys Do in Jurisdictions That Have Language Suggesting Consultation With Clients on ADR Options? .....	31
E. Will Attorneys Who Do Not Fulfill Mandatory Consultation Requirements Be Subject to State Bar Disciplinary Actions? .....	31
F. Could an Obligation to Advise Clients of ADR Options Be a Basis for Malpractice Liability? .....	32
G. Should There Be Explicit Language in Ethics Laws Dealing With Attorney Notification of ADR Options? If So, Should the Language Be Hortatory or Mandatory? .....	35
VI. Conclusion .....	36

Chapter 3 Counseling Potential Claimants

Paul H. Tobias .....	37
I. Introduction .....	38
II. Explaining the Pros and Cons of Different ADR Options .....	39
III. Explaining the Different Phases of the Legal Process .....	41
IV. Factors in Determining the Appropriate Amount for Settlement .....	43
A. Probable Outcome .....	43
1. Getting to the Jury .....	44
2. Facts .....	44
3. The Equities .....	44
4. Personalities .....	44
B. Damages .....	45
C. Settlement .....	45
D. Economic Strength .....	46
E. Cost of Defense .....	46
V. Explaining the Need to Compromise in Most Cases and the Nonmonetary Factors That Affect Compromise .....	46
VI. Explaining the Potential of Ongoing Peace Negotiations During the Warlike Discovery and Trial Preparation Stages .....	49

VII. Educating the Client Until the End of the Case and the Client-Lawyer Relationship .....	51
VIII. Conclusion .....	52
Chapter 4 Advising Potential Defendants
Richard S. Meyer and Samuel M. First .....	55
I. Why an Employer Might Want Alternative Dispute Resolution .....	56
A. The Obvious Objectives .....	56
B. The Not-So-Obvious Objectives .....	57
II. Designing Dispute Resolution Programs: Preliminary Considerations .....	58
A. Which Employees Will Be Covered by the Program? .....	59
B. Will the Program Apply to Existing Employees or New Employees Only? .....	59
C. What Type of Claims Are to Be Covered? .....	61
D. What Types of Procedures Are to Be Incorporated Into the Program? .....	63
1. Internal Procedures .....	63
a. Open-Door Policy .....	63
b. Management/Human Resources .....	64
c. Peer Review .....	64
d. Management Review Board .....	67
2. External Procedures .....	68
a. What Disputes Are Eligible .....	68
b. Mediation .....	69
c. Arbitration .....	70
Chapter 5 A Note on Mediator and Arbitrator Ethics
Norman Brand .....	75
I. Introduction .....	75
II. Labor Mediation .....	76
III. Labor Arbitration .....	77
IV. Employment Mediation .....	81
A. Voluntariness .....	82
B. Impartiality .....	84
C. Disclosure .....	84
D. Competence .....	85
E. Confidentiality .....	86
F. Compensation .....	87
V. Employment Arbitration .....	89
A. Qualifications .....	90

B. Disclosure .....	91
1. Relationships .....	91
2. Case Experience .....	91
3. Interests .....	92
C. Ensuring Fairness in the Process .....	92
VI. Conclusion .....	97
Chapter 6 Putting It Together I: A Note on the Economics of Imposed Employment Arbitration Agreements
Norman Brand .....	99
I. What Is a Case Worth? .....	99
II. Some Practical Tips for the Lawyer .....	101
A. Plaintiff's Lawyers .....	101
B. Defense Lawyers .....	103

PART II: MEDIATION

PART II.A. HOW MEDIATORS OPERATE

Chapter 7 How Mediators Operate: A Mediator's View
Rosemary A. Townley .....	113
I. The Pre-Mediation Phase .....	113
II. The Mediation Session: Introduction and Openings .....	117
A. Introduction .....	117
B. Mediator's Preliminary Statement .....	117
C. Opening Statements of the Parties .....	119
III. The Initial Caucuses .....	121
IV. Later Caucuses .....	123
V. Settlement .....	125
Chapter 8 How Mediators Operate: A Mediator's View
Anthony C. Piazza .....	127
I. Introduction .....	127
II. Fees .....	128
III. Briefs .....	128
IV. Case Management .....	129
A. Initial Contact .....	129

B. Obtaining the Other Party’s Agreement to Mediate .....	129
C. Authority .....	130
V. Mediation .....	131
A. Joint Session .....	131
B. The First Caucus .....	133
C. Subsequent Caucuses .....	135
D. Creating Movement .....	136
E. Confidential Discussions With Attorney or Client .....	137
F. Concluding the Mediation .....	138
VI. After the Mediation .....	140

Chapter 9 How Mediators Operate: A Mediator’s View

George Nicolau .....	141
I. Introduction .....	141
II. Pre-Mediation Mediation .....	143
III. Opening the Mediation .....	145
IV. Managing the Proceedings .....	146
V. Approaching Settlement .....	149
VI. Conclusion .....	153

Chapter 10 How Mediators Operate: A Mediator’s View

John R. Van Winkle .....	155
I. Introduction .....	155
II. When, What, Where, Who: Pre-Mediation Considerations .....	156
A. When .....	156
B. What .....	158
C. Where .....	159
D. Who .....	159
III. My General Principles .....	160
A. The Mock Trial Mediation .....	161
B. General Considerations .....	162
C. The Joint Session: What Will the Jury Hear? .....	163
D. Role of the Mediator .....	164
E. When Clients Become Jurors .....	165
F. Negotiating With the Mediator in Caucus .....	166
IV. Special Problems .....	166
A. Securing Momentum .....	166

B. Breaking Impasse .....	168
C. Closure .....	169
Chapter 11 Putting It Together II: How Do You Choose a Mediator?
Norman Brand .....	171

PART II.B. HOW MEDIATORS VIEW THEIR ROLE AND THE ROLE OF ADVOCATES

Chapter 12 How Mediators View Their Role: A Mediator's View
Gerald R. McKay .....	181
I. Introduction .....	181
II. Ex Parte Communications Before Mediation .....	184
III. Pre-Mediation Briefs .....	185
IV. Client Preparation for Mediation .....	186
V. What I Want to Hear at Mediation .....	187
A. Getting Acquainted .....	187
B. Offer Exchanges .....	188
C. Detailed Packaging .....	189
VI. Listening to Legal Theories During Mediation .....	190
VII. The Lawyer's Role at the Mediation .....	192
VIII. Closing and Writing the Agreement .....	193
IX. The Special Needs of Collective Bargaining Mediation .....	200
X. Conclusions .....	203
Chapter 13 How Mediators View Their Role: A Mediator's View
Susan T. Mackenzie .....	205
I. Introduction and General Principles .....	205
II. Spending Time in Structuring the Mediation .....	207
A. Participation Issues .....	208
B. Location and Timing Issues .....	212
C. Prehearing Submissions .....	214
III. Letting the Parties and the Mediator Communicate Directly .....	215
IV. Maintaining Flexibility and a Focus on Accommodation Throughout the Process .....	217
A. Unavailability of a Party .....	217

B. Parties Who Impede the Mediation .....	218
C. Using the Mediator as a Lightning Rod or Confidante .....	220
D. Creative Structuring of Processes .....	222
V. Creative Settlement Structuring .....	223
VI. Bringing the Parties to Closure .....	224
VII. Conclusion .....	226

Chapter 14 How Mediators View Their Role:

A Mediator’s View

Linda Singer .....	227
---------------------------	-----

I. Introduction .....	227
II. Before the Mediation .....	228
A. Getting the Other Party to the Table .....	228
B. Finding out How the Mediator Works .....	228
C. Writing the Story .....	229
D. Developing the Guest List .....	230
E. Preparing the Client .....	232
III. During the Mediation .....	233
A. What I Want to Hear: Your Focus .....	233
B. The Lawyer’s Role: Your Strategy .....	234
C. Reaching Agreement .....	238
D. When You Fail to Reach Agreement at the Table .....	239

Chapter 15 How Mediators View Their Role:

A Mediator’s View

Eric Galton .....	241
--------------------------	-----

I. Pre-Mediation Considerations .....	241
A. Selection of the Mediator .....	242
B. Length of the Process .....	242
C. Who Should Attend .....	242
D. Where the Mediation Should Take Place .....	243
E. Do We Wish to Exchange Pre-Mediation Submissions or Only Submit Them to the Mediator? .....	243
F. Are Any Process Options or Enhancements Useful? .....	243
G. The Pre-Mediation Written Submission .....	244
II. How I Run a Mediation (The Mediator’s Introduction) .....	245
III. General Principles .....	248
IV. The Role of Caucuses .....	249

V. Securing Movement and Breaking Impasses .....	250
VI. Closing the Deal .....	252

Chapter 16 Putting It Together III: What You Can Learn From Mediators to Make You a Better Negotiator

Norman Brand .....	255
I. Introduction .....	255
II. Before the Mediation .....	256
III. At the Mediation .....	259
IV. Do You Really Need a Mediator? .....	263

PART II.C. HOW ADVOCATES PREPARE THEMSELVES, THEIR CLIENTS, AND THEIR CASES FOR MEDIATION

Chapter 17 How Advocates Prepare: A Plaintiff Lawyer's View

Douglas A. Hedin .....	269
I. How to Get to Mediation—And How Not to .....	269
II. Selecting the Mediator .....	271
III. What a Mediator Is—And Is Not .....	274
IV. Succeeding at Mediation .....	276
V. The Mechanics of Mediation .....	281

Chapter 18 How Advocates Prepare: A Management Lawyer's View

F. Curt Kirschner, Jr. .....	283
I. Introduction .....	284
II. Arranging the Mediation .....	285
A. Standards for Selecting Mediators .....	285
1. Personal Characteristics .....	285
2. Knowledge and Experience .....	287
3. Volunteer Mediators .....	289
B. Exchanging Information Before Mediation .....	290
1. Discovery .....	291
a. Who Has the Documents? .....	291
b. Do You Have Documents That You'd Rather Not Disclose? .....	291

- c. Does the Plaintiff Have Information That You Need to Know More About? ..... 292
    - d. Will Engaging in Discovery Affect the Plaintiff Counsel’s Interest in Settling the Case? ..... 292
    - e. Will Engaging in Discovery Affect the Plaintiff’s Interest in Settling the Case? ..... 292
  - 2. Mediation Briefs ..... 293
- C. Organizing the Mediation Session ..... 294
  - 1. Timing ..... 294
  - 2. Location ..... 297
  - 3. Duration ..... 297
- D. Who Should Attend the Mediation? ..... 298
  - 1. Settlement Authority ..... 298
  - 2. Fact Witnesses ..... 299
  - 3. Counsel ..... 300
- E. Should You Bring Your Expert? ..... 301
- F. Packing Your Bag for Mediation ..... 301

III. Preparing Your Client for Mediation ..... 303

- A. Letting Your Client Speak ..... 303
- B. Explaining How the Process Differs From Litigation and Other Forms of ADR ..... 304
- C. Thinking About Your Interests Versus Deciding the Bottom Line ..... 305
- D. How to Support and Protect Your Client in Mediation ..... 307
- E. Deciding Versus Advising: What the Client Should Expect of You in Mediation ..... 309
- F. Knowing When to Say “No” in Mediation ..... 309

Chapter 19 How Mediation Really Works—
A Union Lawyer’s Perspective

- Joseph Colton* ..... 311
- I. Introduction ..... 311
- II. Mediation in the Labor Relations Context ..... 311
- III. Mediator Selection ..... 314
- IV. Getting to the Table ..... 318
- V. Duration of the Mediation Session ..... 319
- VI. Discovery in Labor Mediation ..... 319
- VII. Attendees ..... 321
- VIII. Behavior at the Session ..... 322
- IX. Role of the Union Lawyer in Mediation ..... 322
- X. Closing the Deal ..... 325

Chapter 20 Putting It Together IV: How to Prepare for Mediation
Norman Brand .....	327
I. Winning at Mediation .....	327
II. The Politics of Mediation .....	330

PART II.D. ADVOCACY IN MEDIATION

Chapter 21 Advocacy in Mediation: A Plaintiff Attorney's Perspective
Randolph H. Freking .....	339
I. Introduction .....	339
II. Advocacy to Your Client: Education .....	340
III. Pre-Mediation Advocacy to the Mediator .....	345
IV. Pre-Mediation Advocacy to the Opposing Party .....	348
V. Advocacy During Mediation Begins at the Front Door .....	349
VI. Advocacy to the Other Side Through the Mediator .....	352
VII. Advocacy to Your Client Through the Mediator .....	353
VIII. When Does Advocacy in Mediation End? .....	354

Chapter 22 Advocacy in Mediation: A Defense Attorney's Perspective
Paul S. McDonough .....	355
I. Introduction .....	355
II. Preliminary Issues .....	356
III. Beginning the Mediation .....	360
IV. Opening Statements .....	361
A. The Mediator's Statement .....	361
B. The Joint Session .....	361
C. The Plaintiff's Statement .....	362
D. The Defendant's Statement .....	364
E. The Tone of Opening Statements .....	365
V. The Caucus .....	367
VI. Considerations in Formulating Settlement Proposals .....	369
VII. Documenting the Agreement .....	374

Chapter 23 Putting It Together V: Using the Mediator Effectively

Norman Brand .....	377
I. Don't Hide the Ball .....	377
II. It's Not About Convincing the Mediator .....	379
III. Half-Truths and Exaggerations Can Hurt .....	380
IV. Protecting Your Client From the Mediator Can Backfire .....	382
V. Never Point an Unloaded "Smoking Gun" .....	382
VI. Use the Mediator as a Negotiating Resource .....	383
VII. Use the Mediator to Quantify the Value of Settlement .....	384

PART II.E. MEDIATING CLASS ACTIONS

Chapter 24 Mediating Class Actions: A Plaintiff Lawyer's View

Richard T. Seymour .....	389
I. Introduction .....	390
II. Some Differences in Mediating Class Actions .....	390
III. Whose Rights Are Being Mediated? .....	392
A. Plaintiff Classes .....	393
B. Interests of Third Parties .....	394
C. The Public Interest .....	395
IV. Are Separately Represented Subclasses Required? .....	396
V. Selecting the Mediator .....	397
A. Functional Qualifications .....	397
B. Personal Qualifications .....	397
C. Practice Background .....	398
D. Prior Training .....	400
E. Court-Annexed Programs .....	401
F. Sitting Judges .....	401
G. Volunteer Versus Paid Mediators .....	402
VI. Who Should Attend the Mediation of a Class Action? .....	403
A. The Plaintiffs' Side .....	403
B. The Defendant's Side .....	405
C. Experts .....	406
D. Others .....	407

VII. Information Needed for Mediation .....	407
A. What the Parties Need .....	407
B. What the Mediator Needs .....	408
C. What Needs to Be Available .....	409
VIII. Timing of the Mediation .....	409
IX. Duration of the Mediation .....	410

Chapter 25 Mediating Class Actions:
A Management Lawyer's View

Mark Dichter .....	413
I. Introduction .....	414
II. How the Process Differs From Litigation, Settlement Conferences, and Negotiations .....	414
III. Preparing for Mediation .....	415
A. Selecting Mediators .....	415
1. Diversity, Demographics, and Communication Style .....	415
2. Experience .....	417
3. Training .....	419
4. Volunteers and “Legal Candy Stripers” .....	419
B. Disclosing Documents and Information at Mediation .....	419
1. Disclosure of Documents and Information .....	420
2. Information to Provide to the Mediator .....	421
3. What Documents, Reports, or Other Evidence Should You Bring With You? .....	422
C. Time, Place, and Duration of the Mediation .....	422
1. Time .....	422
2. Place .....	423
3. Structure .....	424
D. Who Should Be at the Mediation? .....	424
E. Providing a Context for Your Client .....	426
F. Is There a Role for Experts? .....	427
G. Mental Preparation .....	428
1. Preparing Your Client .....	428
2. Explaining Your Role—Support and Protection .....	430
3. Deciding Versus Advising: What the Client Should Expect of You .....	430
4. Knowing When to Say No in Mediation .....	431
IV. Settlement Documents and the Court Approval Process .....	432

Chapter 26 Mediating Class Actions: How Mediators Operate and What They Want
Hunter R. Hughes ..... 433

- I. Introduction ..... 433
- II. Initiation of the Mediation Process ..... 434
- III. The Mediation Agreement ..... 435
- IV. Information and Documentation to Be Provided to the Mediator Before Mediation ..... 436
- V. The Pre-Mediation Meetings ..... 437
- VI. The Initial Mediation Session ..... 439
- VII. An Approach to Resolving Class Cases ..... 441
  - A. Injunctive or Equitable Relief ..... 441
  - B. Monetary Relief ..... 443
  - C. Attorneys’ Fees ..... 444
- VIII. Closure of the Settlement ..... 447

Chapter 27 Putting It Together VI: Lessons From Class Action Mediation That Apply to All Employment Mediation
Norman Brand ..... 449

- I. Mediator Selection ..... 450
- II. Mediation Process ..... 454
- III. Implementing the Settlement ..... 455

PART III: ARBITRATION

PART III.A. HOW ARBITRATORS VIEW ARBITRATION

Chapter 28 Employment Arbitration: A Retired Judge’s View
Robert Weil ..... 463

- I. Introduction ..... 463
- II. Source of Authority ..... 463
- III. Disclosures ..... 464
- IV. Starting the Case ..... 465
- V. The Preliminary Hearing ..... 465
- VI. The Hearing Itself ..... 469
- VII. Dealing With Evidence ..... 471
- VIII. Closing Statements and Briefs ..... 472
- IX. Appropriate Remedies ..... 473

X. Form of Decision .....	474
XI. Vacating the Award .....	475

Chapter 29 Labor Arbitration: A Labor Arbitrator's View

Richard I. Bloch .....	477
I. How I Decide Cases .....	478
A. Source of the Arbitrator's Authority .....	478
B. Decisional Standards .....	478
C. Burdens of Proof .....	480
D. Essential Elements of the Prima Facie Case .....	481
E. Probative Value and Persuasive Impact of Evidence .....	482
F. How the Form of Decision Affects the Decisional Process .....	482
G. Remedies .....	483
II. How I Run a Hearing .....	484
A. Prehearing Activities .....	484
1. Disclosure .....	484
2. Providing and Gathering Information .....	485
3. Scheduling Hearings .....	488
4. Prehearing Briefs .....	489
B. At the Hearing .....	489
1. Outsiders .....	490
2. Arbitrability .....	490
3. Order of Proceeding .....	491
4. Sequestration .....	492
5. Opening Statements .....	492
6. Swearing Witnesses .....	493
7. Transcripts .....	493
8. Advocacy and Controlling the Hearing .....	493
9. Evidence .....	494
a. Hearsay .....	495
b. Relevance .....	497
c. Best Evidence .....	497
d. Privilege .....	498
10. Managing the Hearing .....	498
III. What I Expect From the Parties .....	499
A. Prehearing Issues .....	499
1. The Prehearing Conference Call .....	499
2. Handling the Prehearing Call .....	500
B. The Hearing .....	501
C. Closing Statements and Briefs .....	503

Chapter 30 Putting It Together VII: Judging Arbitration: Can It Survive?
Norman Brand ..... 507

PART III.B. HOW ARBITRATORS DECIDE CASES

Chapter 31 How Arbitrators Decide Cases: An Arbitrator’s View
Arnold M. Zack ..... 515

- I. The Decisionmaking Process ..... 515
- II. The Source of the Arbitrator’s Authority ..... 516
- III. Decisional Standards ..... 519
- IV. Burdens of Proof ..... 521
- V. Assessing the Probative Value and Persuasive Impact of Evidence ..... 523
- VI. Standards of Proof ..... 524
- VII. How the Form of Decision Affects the Decisional Process ..... 525

Chapter 32 How Arbitrators Decide Cases: An Arbitrator’s View
Alfred G. Feliu ..... 527

- I. Introduction ..... 527
- II. Assumptions and Approach ..... 529
  - A. Appropriate Degree of Formality ..... 529
  - B. Application of Substantive Law ..... 530
  - C. Review of Arbitration Awards ..... 532
  - D. Judicious Arbitration Hearings ..... 533
- II. Finding Facts ..... 533
  - A. Authorized Discovery ..... 534
  - B. Role of Evidentiary Rules and Principles ..... 535
  - C. Reliance on the Full Record ..... 536
  - D. The Arbitrator’s Role in Developing the Record ..... 537
  - E. The Role of Judicial Burdens of Proof ..... 538
  - F. The Role of External Law in Applying Facts .... 539
- III. Applying the Law ..... 539
  - A. What Law Applies ..... 539
  - B. Learning Applicable Law ..... 540

IV. Remedies ..... 541
 V. Form of Award ..... 542
 VI. Conclusion ..... 544

Chapter 33 Putting It Together VIII: How To Choose an Employment Arbitrator

Norman Brand ..... 547
 I. Introduction ..... 547
 II. Adopting Rules ..... 551
 III. Discovery ..... 552
 IV. Finality ..... 553

PART III.C. HOW ARBITRATORS RUN A HEARING AND WHAT THEY EXPECT FROM THE PARTIES

Chapter 34 How Arbitrators Run a Hearing: An Arbitrator’s View

John Kagel ..... 557
 I. The Importance of a Transcript ..... 558
 II. Prehearing Procedures ..... 560
     A. Prehearing Conference ..... 560
     B. Estimates of Hearing Length ..... 561
     C. Dispositive Motions ..... 562
     D. Subpoenas and Documents ..... 562
     E. Witness Lists ..... 564
     F. Party Arbitrators ..... 564
     G. Other Matters ..... 564
 III. The Hearing ..... 565
     A. Pre-Record Matters ..... 565
     B. On the Record ..... 566
     C. Opening Statements ..... 566
     D. Course of Examination: Considerations ..... 567
     E. Objections ..... 567
         1. Hearsay and Leading Questions ..... 567
         2. Relevance and Arbitrator Activism ..... 569
     F. Questions by the Arbitrator and Other Interjections ..... 570
     G. Counsel Courtesy ..... 571
     H. Other Objections ..... 572
         1. What I Want in Negotiating History ..... 572
         2. How I Want Objections to Be Made ..... 574

I. Expert Testimony: The Use and Overuse of Experts .....	576
IV. Closing the Case .....	577
A. Summation: Briefs, Oral Argument, or Both .....	577
B. Reopening the Hearing .....	578
C. Motions for Reconsideration .....	579
V. Conclusion .....	579

Chapter 35 How Arbitrators Run a Hearing:
An Arbitrator’s View

Robert J. Rabin .....	581
I. Introduction .....	582
II. My Three Goals in Arbitration .....	582
III. What Happens in Advance of the Hearing .....	583
A. Two Models of Arbitration .....	583
1. Arbitrations Under Collective Bargaining Agreements .....	583
2. Statutory Arbitrations .....	585
B. Prehearing Conferences .....	586
C. Bringing Features of the Statutory Model Into Collective Bargaining Arbitrations .....	588
IV. How I Conduct a Typical Hearing .....	589
A. The Opening Hour .....	590
1. Framing the Issues .....	590
2. Joint Exhibits .....	593
3. Opening Statements .....	594
B. The Presentations .....	595
C. Direct Examination .....	596
D. Cross-Examination .....	597
E. Expediting the Presentation of Evidence .....	598
F. Credibility .....	602
G. Evidence .....	603
H. Briefs and Arguments .....	607
V. The Arbitration Award .....	608
VI. Conclusion .....	609

Chapter 36 How Arbitrators Run a Hearing:
An Arbitrator’s View

Janet Maleson Spencer .....	611
I. Introduction .....	611
II. Prehearing Issues .....	612
III. The Hearing .....	617

IV. Post-Hearing Issues .....	621
V. Conclusion .....	622

Chapter 37 Putting It Together IX: Streamlining the Process

Norman Brand .....	623
I. Introduction .....	623
II. Prehearing Conferences .....	624
III. Discovery .....	626
IV. Before the Hearing .....	628
V. At the Hearing .....	629
VI. The Posthearing Brief .....	630

PART III.D. PREPARING FOR ARBITRATION

Chapter 38 Preparing for Arbitration: A Plaintiff Lawyer's View

Laurence S. Moy .....	635
I. Introduction .....	636
II. Preparing the Statement of Claim .....	636
A. Tell Your Client's Story .....	637
B. Consider Your Proof .....	637
C. Build Credibility .....	637
D. State the Relief Sought .....	638
E. Listen at Mediation .....	638
III. Choosing an Arbitrator .....	639
A. Sources of Information .....	639
B. Arbitrator Characteristics .....	642
C. Client Participation in Arbitrator Selection .....	642
IV. Using Arbitrators to Facilitate Discovery .....	643
A. Discovery Plans .....	643
B. Arguing Discovery Issues .....	644
C. Recalcitrance, Reluctance, and In Camera Inspections .....	645
D. Sanctions .....	646
V. Prehearing Briefs .....	646
VI. Should You Use a "Mock" Arbitration? .....	647
VII. Explaining the Significance of Arbitral Finality .....	648
VIII. Teaching Your Client to Respond to Questions You Do and Do Not Ask .....	649
A. The Client's Role .....	649
B. Arbitrators' Questions .....	649
C. Opponents' Questions .....	650

D. Teaching Your Witness to Talk to the Arbitrator and Respond to Nonverbal Cues .....	651
E. Presenting Evidence and Argument in Formats That May Not Be Normally Received in Court .....	652
IX. Preparing Expert Witnesses .....	653
X. Should You Use a Transcript? .....	654
XI. Physical Evidence and Demonstrations .....	654
XII. Conclusion .....	655

Chapter 39 Preparing for Arbitration: A Union Lawyer's View

Vincent A. Harrington, Jr. .....	657
I. Selecting the Arbitrator .....	658
A. In General .....	658
B. Context of the Dispute .....	659
C. Cost .....	660
D. Personality and Reputation .....	660
II. Using the Arbitrator to Facilitate Discovery .....	660
A. Statutory and Contractual Considerations .....	660
B. Subpoena Power .....	662
C. Confidentiality .....	664
D. Sanctions .....	665
III. Preparing for the Hearing .....	665
A. Preliminary Issues .....	665
B. Prehearing Briefs .....	666
C. Preparing Witnesses .....	667
D. Anticipating Evidentiary Issues .....	670
IV. Preparation and Use of Evidence in Arbitration ...	671
A. In General .....	671
B. Expert Witnesses .....	672
C. Transcripts .....	673
D. Unusual Evidence .....	673
V. Conclusion .....	674

Chapter 40 Preparing for Arbitration: A Management Lawyer's View

Michael I. Bernstein .....	677
I. Introduction .....	678
II. Choosing an Arbitrator .....	678
III. Discovery .....	680
A. Fairness and Creativity .....	680
B. Two-Way Street .....	681

- C. Pre-Arbitration Discovery: The Grievance Procedure ..... 682
- D. Pre-Arbitration Conference ..... 682
- IV. Prehearing Briefs ..... 683
- V. The Opening Statement ..... 683
  - A. Importance ..... 683
  - B. Purposes ..... 684
    - 1. Gaining the Attention and Interest of the Arbitrator ..... 684
    - 2. Informing the Arbitrator ..... 685
    - 3. Convincing the Arbitrator That Your Client Should Prevail ..... 686
    - 4. Credibility ..... 686
- VI. Educating Your Client ..... 687
- VII. Special Education ..... 688
- VIII. Out of the Mouths of ..... 691
- IX. A Story to Tell ..... 692
  - A. Maintain the Point of View ..... 692
  - B. Advance the Story ..... 692
  - C. Make the Story Believable ..... 693
  - D. Tell the Story Well ..... 693
  - E. Beware of Gilding the Lily ..... 693
  - F. Remember the Point of the Story ..... 694
- X. Conclusion ..... 694

Chapter 41 Putting It Together X: How to Tell a Winning Story in Arbitration: Preparation

Norman Brand ..... 695

- I. Introduction ..... 695
- II. Learning the Story Elements ..... 698
- III. To Whom Are You Telling the Story? ..... 699
- IV. Preparing the Story ..... 701
- V. Prehearing Briefs ..... 703

PART III.E. REPRESENTING THE CLIENT IN ARBITRATION

Chapter 42 Representing the Client in Statutory Arbitration: The Plaintiff Lawyer’s View

Lawrence Solotoff and David G. Gabor ..... 709

- I. Introduction ..... 709
- II. Client Consultation and Review ..... 711

III. Arbitration or Litigation? .....	711
IV. Arbitrator Selection .....	713
V. Arbitration Procedures and Protocols .....	713
VI. Scheduling and Discovery .....	715
VII. Motion Practice .....	718
VIII. Defining the Statutory and Evidentiary Issues .....	719
IX. Trial and Witness Presentation .....	720
X. Mediation and Settlement .....	721
XI. Decisions, Findings, and Conclusions .....	721
XII. Enforcement and Review .....	722
XIII. Conclusion .....	723

Chapter 43 Representing the Client in

Arbitration: A Union Lawyer’s View

Christopher Burdick .....	725
----------------------------------	-----

I. Introduction .....	726
II. The Issue: Defining the Arbitrator’s Jurisdiction ...	726
A. Identifying the Issue .....	727
B. Formulating the Issue to Gain Advantage .....	728
III. Determining and Setting the Standards That Will Govern the Arbitrator’s Decision .....	729
A. Collective Bargaining Cases .....	729
B. Statutory Causes of Action .....	729
C. Common Law Causes of Action .....	729
D. Other Contractual Causes of Action .....	730
IV. Allocation of the Burden of Proof and the Burden of Going Forward .....	730
A. Just Cause for Discipline .....	730
B. Wrongful Termination on a Common Law Theory .....	730
C. Employment Decisions on Statutorily Prohibited Bases .....	730
D. Breach of Collective Bargaining Agreement, Contract, or Personnel Rules and Regulations .....	731
E. Other Contractual Causes of Action .....	731
V. Establishing the Essential Elements of the Prima Facie Case .....	731
VI. Proving and Establishing the Necessary Facts to Convince the Arbitrator That the Burden Has Shifted to the Respondent to Justify Its Actions .....	732
VII. Documentary Evidence .....	733
VIII. Pre-Testimony Stipulations .....	735

IX. The Opening Statement: Should You Make It or Waive It? .....	735
X. Role of the Rules of Evidence in Arbitration .....	737
XI. Choosing and Presenting Witnesses .....	738
XII. Cross-Examining Opposing Witnesses .....	740
XIII. The Remedy .....	741
A. Compensatory Economic Damages .....	741
B. Punitive Damages .....	742
C. Attorneys' Fees and Costs .....	743
D. Equitable Relief .....	743
XIV. Written Briefs Versus Closing Oral Argument .....	744
XV. Conclusion .....	746

Chapter 44 Representing the Client in Arbitration: A Management Lawyer's View

Stephen J. Hirschfeld ..... 749

I. How to Prepare Yourself, Your Client, and Your Witnesses for Arbitration .....	750
A. Selecting an Arbitrator .....	750
B. Prehearing Discovery .....	751
C. Site Visits, Physical Evidence, and Demonstrations .....	752
II. How to Represent Your Client at an Arbitration Hearing .....	752
A. Introduction .....	752
B. Crafting the Issue .....	754
C. Identifying and Setting Forth the Standards That Will Govern the Arbitrator's Decision .....	756
D. Determining the Appropriate Burden of Proof and Burden of Persuasion .....	757
E. Organizing Your Case .....	760
F. Preparing Your Case for the Hearing .....	762
1. Introduction .....	762
2. Identifying the Evidence and Facts to Be Presented .....	762
3. Use of Exhibits .....	767
4. Rules of Evidence .....	768
5. Cross-Examining Opposing Witnesses .....	770
6. Presenting Your Case .....	771
7. Concluding the Hearing .....	774
III. Conclusions .....	775

Chapter 45 Putting It Together XI: How to Tell a Winning Story in Arbitration: At the Hearing and Beyond
Norman Brand ..... 777

- I. Strategic Considerations ..... 777
- II. The Opening Statement ..... 779
- III. Direct Examination ..... 781
- IV. Cross-Examination ..... 783
- V. Briefs/Closing ..... 784

PART IV: DRAFTING ISSUES

PART IV.A. DRAFTING ADR PROGRAMS

Chapter 46 Drafting ADR Programs: Management-Integrated Conflict Management Systems
James N. Adler ..... 791

- I. Even if It “Isn’t Broke,” It Can Certainly Be Improved ..... 792
- II. Employers Have Responded With a Variety of ADR Programs ..... 794
- III. Courts, Including the U.S. Supreme Court, Have Generally Been Supportive of Predispute ADR Agreements ..... 796
- IV. The Need for Fairness (Or, Don’t Be a Pig) ..... 797
- V. How to Achieve Fairness ..... 798
  - A. Scope of the Arbitration Agreement ..... 799
    - 1. Employees to Whom the Procedures Apply ..... 799
    - 2. Should Potential Defendants Other Than the Employer Be Included? ..... 800
    - 3. Causes of Action to Be Covered ..... 800
    - 4. Employment Actions That May Be Grieved ..... 801
    - 5. Providing for Counterclaims ..... 801
  - B. Selecting the Arbitrator ..... 802
  - C. Provisions Concerning Summary Judgment ..... 803
  - D. Burden of Proof ..... 804
  - E. Employee Advocacy Assistance ..... 804

F. Extent to Which Arbitration Decisions Can Be Made Binding .....	804
G. Standard of Review .....	805
H. Periods of Limitations .....	806
I. Severability and Reformation .....	806
J. Confidentiality .....	807
K. Who Shall Bear the Fees and Costs? .....	808
L. Attorneys' Fees .....	809
M. Written Awards .....	809
N. Should Mediation Be Specified as a Mandatory Step in an Arbitration Agreement? .....	809
O. Should the Arbitration Agreement Provide Preliminary Steps? .....	810
P. Discovery .....	810
Q. Scope of Remedies .....	811
R. Place of Hearing .....	813
S. Order of Presentation .....	813
T. Transcripts .....	813
U. Cancellation of Arbitration Procedures and Consideration .....	814
V. Judicial Proceedings .....	815
VI. Arbitration Provisions Need Not Be Inconsistent With Employment at Will .....	816
VII. Introduction of Arbitration Procedures .....	816
A. How Should Arbitration Procedures Be Introduced to Employees and Promulgated by the Employer? .....	816
B. Should Existing Employees Be Required to Agree to Predispute Binding Arbitration? .....	818
C. Where Should the Dispute Resolution Procedures Be Set Forth? .....	818
VIII. Conclusion .....	819
Chapter 47 Drafting ADR Agreements
Evan J. Spelfogel .....	821
I. Introduction .....	821
II. Checklist for Drafting ADR Agreements .....	822
III. Predispute ADR Agreements in Employment Applications .....	824
IV. Predispute ADR Provisions in Employee Handbooks .....	828
V. Predispute ADR Agreements .....	832
VI. Postdispute ADR Agreements .....	846
VII. Conclusion .....	862

Chapter 48 Drafting Settlement Agreements:
A Plaintiff Lawyer’s View

Wayne N. Outten ..... 863

I. Predispute Arrangements ..... 864

    A. What Disputes Will Be Submitted to Arbitration? ..... 865

    B. Where and When Will the Arbitration Take Place? ..... 866

    C. What Is the Procedure for Arbitrator Selection? How Many Arbitrators Should Be Used? ..... 866

    D. Who Will Administer the Arbitration Procedure? ..... 867

    E. What Rules Will Govern the Arbitration? ..... 867

    F. How Much Discovery Will Be Allowed? ..... 868

    G. What Substantive Law Will Govern the Proceeding? ..... 869

    H. Who Will Pay Administrative and Arbitrator Fees? ..... 869

        I. What Remedies Are Available in the Proceeding? ..... 870

        J. Does the Arbitrator Have the Authority to Award Attorneys’ Fees to the Prevailing Party? ..... 871

    K. What Rules of Confidentiality Will Apply to the Proceeding? ..... 871

    L. What Type of Award Will the Arbitrator Issue? ..... 871

    M. How Will the Arbitrator’s Award Be Enforced? ..... 872

II. Postdispute Agreements ..... 872

Chapter 49 Innovative ADR Provisions in Collective Bargaining Agreements

Neil Bodine ..... 877

I. Introduction ..... 878

II. Collective Disputes ..... 881

    A. Specialized Issues ..... 881

        1. Yosemite Concession Company and Teamsters Local 386 ..... 882

        2. Fleming Foods and Teamsters Local 431 ..... 883

        3. Basic Vegetable Products and Teamsters Local 890 ..... 883

    B. General Issues ..... 884

        1. Mandatory Subjects of Bargaining ..... 884

2. Ongoing Collective Bargaining .....	885
3. Permissive Subjects of Bargaining .....	885
4. Multiple Stakeholder Committees .....	886
III. Individual Disputes .....	887
A. Grievance Procedures .....	888
1. Prearbitration Settlement Meetings .....	888
2. Prearbitration, Interest-Based Mediation .....	888
3. Joint Investigation of Disputes .....	889
4. Internal Arbitration .....	890
IV. An Integrated, Multifaceted Dispute Resolution Process, Including Employee-Employee Disputes .....	891
A. Individual Disputes .....	891
B. Collective Disputes .....	892
C. Formal Discipline .....	893
D. Loss of Privileges .....	894
V. Keys to Creating Successful ADR Processes .....	894
A. Examining the Problem .....	894
B. Designing Systems and Drafting Language: A Brief "How To" .....	895
C. Process Questions .....	897
D. Follow-Up .....	897
VI. Conclusion .....	900

Chapter 50 Should Unions Risk Breaching Their Duty of Fair Representation by Agreeing That Members Must Arbitrate
Statutory Claims Against Employers?

Julius Mel Reich .....	903
I. Background .....	904
II. Post- Gilmer Cases Have Not Clarified the Law .....	905
III. The Post- Wright Law .....	906
A. May a Union Waive an Employee's Right to Have a Dispute Resolved by an Administrative Agency or a Court? .....	906
1. Waiving the Right to File a Charge With an Agency Is Probably Unenforceable .....	906
2. Requiring Unit Employees to Use Arbitration Instead of Court Is Likely a Permissive Subject of Bargaining .....	907
3. The Employer May Not Impose Arbitration of Statutory Claims on Employees Through the Union .....	907

IV. Should a Union Waive an Employee’s Rights? ..... 909

    A. Assuming It Has the Right to Do So,
        a Union Should Not Waive Employees’
        Statutory Rights ..... 909

    B. It Is Usually Not in the Employee’s Interest to Submit a Statutory Claim to the Normal
        Contractual Grievance Procedure ..... 912

    C. An Alternative for the Union Is to Provide for an Arbitral Forum to Which the Employee Can Agree Should the Employer Wish to Use It ..... 912

V. Conclusion ..... 914

Chapter 51 The Myth of Second-Class Justice: Resolving Employment Disputes in Arbitration

Lewis L. Maltby ..... 915

I. Arbitration as Second-Class Justice ..... 915

II. Frequency of Summary Judgment ..... 921

III. Relative Performance of Arbitration and Litigation ..... 921

IV. Position of the Civil Rights Community ..... 924

PART IV.B. DRAFTING SETTLEMENT AGREEMENTS

Chapter 52 Negotiating and Drafting Settlement Agreements: The Perspective of Employees’ Counsel

Wayne N. Outten ..... 931

I. Overview ..... 932

    A. Context of the Settlement ..... 932

    B. Severance Agreements ..... 932

    C. First Draft of the Agreement ..... 933

    D. Mediated Settlements ..... 934

    E. Reciprocity and Mutuality ..... 935

II. Severance Agreements: Special Issues ..... 935

    A. Generally ..... 935

    B. Who Should Negotiate ..... 935

    C. With Whom to Negotiate ..... 936

    D. How to Negotiate ..... 936

    E. Standard Severance Policies ..... 937

    F. Withdrawal of Offer ..... 937

    G. Continuation Coverage ..... 937

- III. Severance Agreements: Economic Terms ..... 938
  - A. Generally ..... 938
  - B. Severance Pay and Other Cash Compensation . 938
    - 1. Options ..... 938
    - 2. Effect of Options ..... 938
    - 3. Termination of Severance Pay ..... 938
    - 4. Incentive Compensation ..... 939
  - C. Leave Pay ..... 940
  - D. Creative Approaches ..... 940
  - E. Offsets ..... 941
  - F. Benefits ..... 941
  - G. Consulting ..... 942
  - H. Attorneys’ Fees ..... 942
    - I. Outplacement Services ..... 942
    - J. Property and Perquisites ..... 943
  - K. Unemployment Insurance ..... 943
- IV. Tax Considerations in Settlements ..... 944
  - A. Background ..... 944
  - B. Payroll Taxes ..... 944
- V. Other Severance and Settlement Issues ..... 945
  - A. Releases and Waivers ..... 945
  - B. Confidentiality ..... 946
  - C. References and Nondisparagement ..... 947
  - D. Restrictive Covenants ..... 948
  - E. Cooperation ..... 949
  - F. “Gag” Clauses ..... 949
  - G. Applications for Future Employment ..... 950
  - H. Liquidated Damages ..... 950
    - I. Dispute Resolution and Attorneys’ Fees ..... 951
- VI. Conclusion ..... 951

Chapter 53 Drafting Settlement Agreements:
The Defense/Management View

- Darrell S. Gay* ..... 953
  - I. Introduction ..... 954
  - II. Terms of the Agreement ..... 956
    - A. Remittance ..... 956
    - B. Release ..... 957
    - C. Nondisclosure/Confidentiality ..... 957
    - D. Liquidated Damages ..... 958
    - E. No Reemployment ..... 958
    - F. References ..... 959
    - G. Nondisparagement ..... 960
    - H. Cooperation ..... 960

I. Trade Secrets/Covenants .....	961
J. OWBPA Compliance .....	962
K. Arbitration .....	964
L. Additional Clauses .....	964
M. Execution .....	964
III. It's All Taxable? .....	965
A. Tax Considerations for Settlement Agreements .....	965
1. Interpretation of Section 104(a)(2) Before the 1996 Amendment .....	967
2. Interpretation of Section 104(a)(2) Since the 1996 Amendment and Implications for Settlement Agreements .....	969
Appendix A Sample Uniform Counsel                 Certification .....	975
Appendix B Discrimination/Wrongful Discharge                 Proceeding Flow Charts .....	977
Appendix C Internet Websites Providing Ethics                 Rules .....	981
Appendix D Model Standards of Conduct for                 Mediators .....	983
Appendix E Sample Agreement for Mediation                 Services .....	991
Appendix F Sample Mediation Instructions .....	995
Appendix G Sample Letter Preparing Client for                 Mediation .....	1001
Appendix H Sample Agreement for Mediation                 Services .....	1007
Appendix I California Code of Civil Procedure .....	1011
Appendix J Sample Request for Materials From                 Client in an Arbitration Case .....	1019

Appendix K Sample Letter of Agreement Between Union and Union Member ..... 1021

Appendix L Excerpts From Various Collective Bargaining Agreements ..... 1025

Appendix M Guidelines for the Design of Integrated Conflict Management Systems Within Organizations: Table of Contents ..... 1053

Appendix N Sample Form Agreements for Employer-Initiated Dispute Resolution Plans ..... 1057

Appendix O Sample Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release ..... 1079