

DETAILED TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD TO SECOND EDITION.....	v
FOREWORD TO FIRST EDITION.....	ix
PREFACE TO SECOND EDITION.....	xi
PREFACE TO FIRST EDITION.....	xv
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS BY DONALD R. LIVINGSTON.....	xix
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS BY REED L. RUSSELL.....	xxi
SUMMARY TABLE OF CONTENTS.....	xxiii
GLOSSARY OF TERMS.....	lxiii

PART I: THE AGENCY

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW.....	3
I. Introduction.....	3
II. The Creation of the EEOC.....	4
III. A Brief History of the EEOC.....	11
IV. Heads of the EEOC.....	17
V. Commissioners of the EEOC.....	21
VI. General Counsels of the EEOC.....	24
VII. The Statutes EEOC Enforces.....	24
A. Title VII.....	24
B. The Age Discrimination in Employment Act.....	26
C. The Equal Pay Act.....	27
D. The Americans with Disabilities Act.....	28
E. The Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act.....	29
VIII. What the EEOC Does.....	29
A. Federal Sector.....	29
B. Private Sector.....	30

CHAPTER 2.	THE EEOC'S STRUCTURE AND ALLOCATION OF RESPONSIBILITIES	35
I.	Introduction	38
II.	An "Independent Establishment"	38
III.	EEOC Headquarters	40
A.	The Commissioners	40
1.	Appointment and Removal	40
a.	Appointment to Staggered Terms and the Holdover Period	41
b.	Recess Appointments	42
c.	Removal	42
2.	Office of the Chair	43
3.	Vice Chair	44
4.	Commissioners	45
a.	Staff	45
b.	Policy Decisions	45
c.	Policy Development	45
d.	Public Outreach	46
e.	Initiating Discrimination Investigations ..	46
f.	National Initiatives and the Commissioner Task Forces	46
i.	Priority Charge Handling Procedures	47
ii.	Systemic Initiative	47
iii.	Strategic Enforcement Plan	48
5.	Executive Secretariat	49
6.	Commission Deliberations and Voting	50
a.	Commission Meetings	50
b.	The Sunshine Act	50
c.	Notation Voting Procedures	51
d.	Meetings of Special Assistants	52
e.	Voting Procedures and "Holds"	52
f.	Power of the Commission When Vacancies Exist	53
B.	The General Counsel	53
1.	Appointment	54
2.	Special Assistants	55
C.	Program Offices	55
1.	Office of Field Programs	55
a.	Field Management Programs	56

b.	Field Coordination Programs.....	56
i.	ADR Coordination Division.....	56
ii.	Federal Sector Hearings	57
iii.	National Outreach Coordination	57
iv.	Revolving Fund Division (EEOC Training Institute).....	58
c.	Relationship With Local FEP Agencies (State and Local Programs)	58
2.	Office of General Counsel	60
a.	Coordination With Investigators	61
b.	Divisions	61
i.	Litigation Advisory Services.....	61
ii.	Litigation Management Services.....	62
iii.	Appellate Services.....	63
iv.	Internal Litigation Divisions.....	63
3.	Office of Legal Counsel.....	64
a.	Coordination and Guidance Programs.....	64
i.	Coordination Division	64
ii.	Title VII/ADEA/EPA Division and ADA/GINA Division	65
b.	Advice and External Litigation Division (Formerly Legal Services) and FOIA Programs	66
i.	Lawsuits by Charging Parties or Respondents.....	66
ii.	Lawsuits under Privacy and Tort Laws	67
iii.	Advice Function	67
4.	Office of Federal Operations.....	67
a.	Background.....	68
b.	Administrative Judges and Complaint Process	69
c.	Appellate Review Programs	69
d.	Federal Sector Programs.....	70
i.	Affirmative Employment Division	70
ii.	Complaint Adjudication Division.....	71
5.	Other Headquarters Offices.....	71
a.	Office of Research, Information and Planning	71

i.	EEO-1 Reporting Data, Generally	71
ii.	EEO-1 Data as Enforcement Tool.....	72
iii.	Research Analysts to Support Litigation and Investigations	72
iv.	Overseeing EEOC's Performance.....	73
b.	Office of Information Technology	73
c.	Office of Human Resources.....	73
d.	Office of Equal Opportunity	74
e.	Office of Inspector General	74
f.	Office of Chief Financial Officer	75
g.	Office of Communications and Legislative Affairs.....	75
IV.	EEOC's Field Operations	75
A.	Types of Offices and Their Relationships	76
1.	District Offices	76
2.	Field Offices.....	76
3.	Area Offices	77
4.	Local Offices.....	77
B.	Delegation of Authority to the District Directors	77
C.	District Office Personnel and Organization	78
1.	District Directors.....	78
a.	Charge Processing.....	78
b.	EEOC Representative	79
2.	Deputy District Directors.....	79
3.	Systemic Enforcement Field Positions	79
4.	Enforcement Managers	79
5.	Supervisory Investigators.....	80
6.	Investigators	80
7.	Mediation Units	80
8.	Legal Units.....	81
9.	Hearing Units	81
CHAPTER 3.	ACCESS TO EEOC FILES AND RECORDS	83
I.	Introduction	85
II.	Practical Considerations	85
III.	"Parties" or "The Public"?.....	86

IV. EEOC Investigative Files.....	86
V. Access to Records Without a FOIA Request.....	88
A. Public Documents	88
1. Documents Available in EEOC Public Reading Areas	88
2. Documents Available Through the EEOC’s Website.....	89
B. Disclosures to Parties During an Investigation	90
C. Section 83 of the Compliance Manual : Disclosures After the Investigation	90
1. Disclosures to Charging Parties or Plaintiffs	91
2. Disclosures for Class Charges.....	92
3. Disclosures to Respondents or Defendants.....	92
4. Disclosures to Third Parties	93
5. Documents Removed Before Disclosure	94
D. Documents Available Under the Privacy Act	94
VI. Obtaining Documents Under the FOIA.....	95
A. The FOIA Generally.....	95
B. Making a FOIA Request	97
1. Form of Request and Specificity Requirement.....	97
2. Requests for Expedited Processing	98
3. Requests to Agency Headquarters and Field Offices	98
a. Requests to District Offices	99
b. Requests to EEOC Headquarters	99
c. Requests for Nationwide Search for Information	100
4. Confidentiality of Information	100
5. Timing of Responses	100
6. Initial Determination	103
7. Denials and Redactions	106
C. FOIA Exemptions Invoked by the EEOC	107
1. Exemption Three: Records Exempted by Statute	109
2. Exemption Four: Trade Secrets.....	110
3. Exemption Five: Inter-Agency or Intra-Agency Memoranda.....	110

4. Exemption Six: Personnel, Medical, or Similar Files	111
5. Exemption Seven: Law Enforcement Records	111
D. Appeals Within the EEOC.....	114
1. When to File.....	114
2. Where to File.....	114
3. Possible Bases for Appeal.....	114
4. What to File.....	115
5. Timing and Form of Responses	115
6. Outcomes on Appeal	116
E. Judicial Review	116
1. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies	116
2. Time Period for Civil Action.....	117
3. Possible Bases for Judicial Review.....	117
4. Standards Applied by Courts	118
5. Attorney's Fees and Costs.....	118
F. Fees and Fee Waivers	119
1. Research and Duplication Fees.....	119
2. Fee Waiver.....	120
VII. Privacy Act and Other Confidentiality Restrictions	121
VIII. Resources and Web Links.....	122
 CHAPTER 4. EEOC REGULATIONS, POLICY GUIDANCE, AND OPINION LETTERS.....	 125
I. Introduction	126
II. Methods of Expression of EEOC Interpretations.....	126
A. Substantive Policy Statements.....	126
1. Authority to Make Interpretative Rules.....	126
2. Type of EEOC Policy Statements	127
a. Compliance Manual Provisions.....	127
b. Enforcement Guidance	127
c. Opinion Letters	129
i. Process for Obtaining an Opinion Letter	129
ii. Opinion Letter as a Safe Harbor to a Claim of Discrimination	129
d. Informal Discussion Letters.....	130
e. Interpretative Regulations.....	130
B. Procedural Rules	131

C. Legislative Rules	131
D. Case-by-Case Determinations in Litigation and Charge Handling	132
III. EEOC Guidelines Do Not Bind the EEOC	132
IV. Judicial Deference to EEOC Regulations and Guidance.....	132
A. Title VII.....	135
B. The ADA	136
C. The ADEA	137
D. EEOC Interpretations of Its Own Regulations.....	137

PART II: EEOC CHARGE FILING AND INVESTIGATIONS

CHAPTER 5. CHARGE BASICS	141
I. Introduction	142
II. Charge Filing	142
A. Formal Charge Requirements and Verification	143
1. Title VII, ADA, and GINA	143
2. ADEA	146
B. Charges Versus Intake Questionnaires	146
C. Perfected Charges and Unperfected Charges.....	148
D. Who Can File a Charge?	153
E. Mechanics of Charge Filing	153
1. How to File a Charge	153
2. Where to File a Charge	154
3. Fees	155
F. The Charge-Filing Period.....	155
1. Generally.....	155
a. When to File a Charge	155
b. Commencement of Limitations Period.....	156
c. Continuing Violations	156
d. When Are Charges Considered Filed?.....	156
2. When There Is a State or Local Agency.....	156
3. Waiver, Tolling, and Estoppel	158
a. Waiver	158
b. Equitable Tolling.....	158
c. Equitable Estoppel.....	159
G. Form of the Charge.....	160
H. Penalties for False Statements.....	160

I. Same-Sex Interviewer in Sexual Harassment Cases.....	161
J. Amending Charges.....	161
CHAPTER 6 REPRESENTING THE CHARGING PARTY.....	169
I. Introduction.....	172
II. Charge-Filing Objective.....	172
A. Filing Solely to Satisfy the Prerequisite to a Lawsuit.....	172
B. Filing to Obtain an Investigation.....	173
III. Preliminary Considerations.....	173
A. Whether to File a Charge.....	173
1. Was There Discrimination Under an EEOC-Enforced Statute?.....	174
2. Was the Potential Charging Party Injured by the Discrimination?.....	174
3. Are There Other Avenues Available?.....	174
4. Will the Charge Be Timely?.....	175
B. Whether to Urge the EEOC to Seek an Immediate Injunction.....	176
C. Whether to Use Mediation.....	176
IV. Charge Filing.....	177
A. Charge-Filing Process.....	178
1. General Overview.....	178
2. Four-Step Procedure.....	179
3. Importance of the Charge Process.....	180
B. Advance Preparation: What to Do Before a Charge Is Filed.....	181
1. Utilize EEOC Informational Resources.....	182
a. Policy Guidance.....	182
b. Compliance Manual.....	182
c. Enforcement Trends.....	182
2. Develop Facts and Organize Evidence.....	183
a. Generally.....	183
b. Preparing the Charging Party by Issue.....	184
i. Preparing to Challenge a Discharge or Disciplinary Action.....	184
ii. Preparing to Challenge a Selection Decision.....	185

iii.	Preparing to Challenge Harassment...	185
iv.	Preparing to Challenge Retaliation	186
v.	Preparing to Challenge Disability Discrimination (Failure to Provide Reasonable Accommodation)	187
C.	Additional Tactical Considerations Prior to Charge Filing.....	187
1.	Mailing Charges to the EEOC.....	187
2.	Accompanying the Charging Party to the EEOC	187
3.	Taking Witnesses to the EEOC.....	189
D.	The Intake Questionnaire	189
E.	The Intake Interview and Charge Receipt Counseling	190
1.	Generally	191
2.	Duration of the Interview	191
3.	Charge Receipt Counseling.....	192
4.	Charging Party Affidavit	193
a.	Content of Affidavit	193
i.	Scope of Alleged Harm	193
ii.	Allegations and Others Possibly Harmed	194
iii.	Supporting Facts.....	194
b.	Review by Charging Party’s Lawyer.....	194
F.	Completing the EEOC Charge Form	194
1.	Dual Filing With State and Local Agency, If Any	194
2.	Name	195
3.	Home Telephone Number and Address	195
4.	Date of Birth	195
5.	Respondent’s Name, Address, and Telephone Number.....	196
6.	Number of Employees	196
7.	Cause of Discrimination.....	196
8.	Date Discrimination Took Place.....	197
9.	Continuing Violation.....	197
10.	The Particulars of the Claim of Discrimination	198
11.	Signature and Attestation by the Charging Party	198

12. Notary.....	198
G. Avoiding Summary Dismissal of the Charge.....	199
H. Avoiding Charge-Filing Pitfalls.....	199
V. The EEOC's Investigation Phase.....	201
A. Getting an "A" Investigation Priority.....	201
1. Use the Charging Party's Edge.....	201
2. Overcoming the Bias Against Charging Parties Who Are Represented by Lawyers.....	202
B. Dealing With EEOC Investigators.....	202
1. The Consequences of Not Cooperating.....	202
2. Keep Close Contact With the Investigator.....	202
3. General Advice on Credibility, Tone, and Cooperation.....	203
C. On-Site Visits to the Employer.....	203
1. The Advantages of an On-Site Investigation....	203
2. The Disadvantages of an On-Site Investigation.....	204
D. Fact Finding Conferences.....	204
E. Getting a Reasonable Cause Finding.....	205
1. Work During the Charge-Filing Process to Get an "A" Investigation Priority.....	205
2. Keep Close Contact and Share Information With the Investigator.....	206
3. Respond to the Respondent's Evidence and Arguments.....	206
4. Leverage the EEOC's Fiscal Year Cycle.....	207
F. What to Do When the Investigation Is Going Badly.....	207
1. Seek Intervention of Supervisors.....	207
2. Request a Notice of Right to Sue.....	208
CHAPTER 7. CHARGE INVESTIGATIONS.....	209
I. Introduction.....	212
II. Overview.....	212
III. Involvement of Attorneys for the Parties.....	214
IV. Authority to Investigate.....	214
A. Title VII, ADA, and GINA.....	214
B. ADEA and EPA.....	215
C. Confidentiality of Records in Investigations.....	216

V. Obligation to Investigate.....	216
VI. Scope of Investigation	217
A. What Can Be Investigated	217
1. Limitations Imposed by the Charge	217
2. Discrimination Subsequent to the Charge.....	218
B. What Will Be Investigated.....	219
1. Issues in the Charge and Like and Related Issues.....	219
2. Discovery of Additional Issues	219
3. Investigating Comparative Evidence.....	220
4. Investigating Statistical Evidence	220
5. Investigating Respondent’s Justification for Its Action.....	221
6. Investigating Selection Procedures for Adverse Impact	222
C. Duration of Investigation.....	222
D. Period of Time Covered by the Investigation.....	223
E. Coordination of the Investigation of Multiple Charges.....	223
F. Which EEOC Office Will Investigate.....	224
VII. Role of the Investigator	224
VIII. Notice to Respondent of Charge Filing	225
IX. Expedited Investigative Activities	230
A. Activities Before Service of Notice of the Charge	230
1. Witness Interviews	230
2. Requests for Temporary Restraining Order	231
B. Activities With Notice of the Charge	231
1. Subpoenas	231
2. On-Site Investigations	232
3. Request for Information.....	232
4. Invitation to Mediate	232
C. Settlement Activities Before or With Notice of the Charge	232
D. Deciding to Investigate Class Issues	233
X. Charges to Be Investigated on Priority Basis	233
XI. Charge Priorities Under Priority Charge Handling Procedures	234
A. Charge Categorization.....	234

B. Category “A1,” “A2,” and “A3”	237
XII. Investigative Process.....	238
A. Assignments to Investigators.....	238
B. EEOC Lawyer Involvement	239
1. Legal Advisor to Investigator	239
2. Participation on “Top Management Committee”	239
3. Cases Suitable for Attorney Assignment.....	240
C. Interpretative Guidance on Statutes	241
D. Investigation Variations by Category.....	241
1. Investigating “A” Charges.....	241
2. Investigating “B” Charges.....	242
3. Investigating “C” Charges.....	242
E. The Typical Process.....	243
F. Investigative Tools: Access to Evidence and Testimony of Witnesses.....	244
1. EEOC Requests for Information.....	244
a. Initial Request for Information	244
b. Follow-Up Information Requests	245
c. Example of Request for Information	246
2. Interrogatories	247
3. Respondent Depositions.....	248
4. Document and Records Requests.....	249
a. EEOC’s Objectives in Examining Records	249
b. Records Sought in Class Investigations....	250
c. EEOC Requests for Computer Data	252
5. EEOC Subpoenas for Information	255
6. Response From the Charging Party	255
G. On-Site Investigations	256
1. Whether to Conduct an On-Site Investigation	257
a. Time Available for Investigation.....	257
b. Nature or Scope of Evidence	257
c. Previous Unresponsive Experiences With Respondent.....	258
d. Need to Preserve Evidence	258
e. Nature of Allegations.....	258
2. Components of an On-Site Investigation	258
a. Respondent Interview	258

b.	Tour of Facilities	259
c.	EEOC Witness Interviews	259
i.	EEOC’s Practice on Advising Witnesses and Charging Parties	259
ii.	EEOC Witness Questioning	260
iii.	Structure of Interviews	261
iv.	Affidavits	262
d.	Examining or Copying Documents	263
H.	Fact-Finding Conferences	264
XIII.	Model of Investigation.....	264
A.	Discharge and Discipline Investigations	264
1.	Generally.....	264
2.	The Request for Information	265
3.	Adverse Impact Claims.....	267
4.	Constructive Discharge Allegation.....	267
a.	Questions to the Charging Party	267
b.	Request for Information to Respondent....	268
B.	Terms, Conditions, and Privileges of Employment	268
1.	Determining the Existence of a Policy.....	268
2.	Policy Administration	269
3.	Who Is Adversely Affected.....	269
4.	Duration and Purpose of Policy	270
5.	Work Environment from Which the Charge Arose	270
C.	Sexual Harassment	270
1.	Conduct to Be Investigated	270
2.	Others Affected	271
3.	Information on Alleged Harasser	271
4.	Corrective Action	272
5.	Obtaining Statements	272
6.	Reason for Adverse Employment Action.....	273
7.	Class Investigation	273
8.	Questions for Parties and Witnesses	273
a.	Questions for Charging Party and Others Who May Have Been Harassed.....	273
b.	Questions for Alleged Harasser	274
c.	Questions for Third Parties	274
XIV.	Obstructive Behavior by Respondents.....	275

A. Failure to Cooperate	275
B. Submission of False Evidence.....	275
C. Uses of Releases or Waivers to Interfere With EEOC’s Investigation	276
D. Impact of Private Arbitration Agreements on EEOC’s Investigation	277
 CHAPTER 8. COMMISSIONER CHARGES AND OTHER EEOC-INITIATED INVESTIGATIONS	 279
I. Introduction	281
II. Obsolete Compliance Manual Provisions	281
III. Relationship to EEOC’s Efforts to Employ a National Law Firm Model	282
IV. Nature of Commissioner’s Charge	284
V. Purpose of a Commissioner Charge	285
VI. Pipeline for EEOC-Initiated Investigations	286
A. Field Office Initiation	286
1. Developing Commissioner Charges or Directed Investigations	287
B. Sources of Information Leading to Charges	287
1. Charge Data System and EEO Reports.....	288
2. Direct Investigative Activity.....	288
3. Media Reports.....	289
4. Other Government Agencies.....	289
5. Unions and Trade Associations.....	289
6. Prior Allegations of Discrimination	290
7. Referrals From Civil Rights Organizations.....	290
8. Employment Agencies	290
VII. Mechanics of an EEOC Commissioner Charge	290
A. Procedure for Field Office Requests for Commissioner Charges	291
B. Charge Requirements	293
C. Timeliness of Charge.....	294
D. Example of a Charge	294
VIII. The Investigation	295
A. Determining Scope of Investigation.....	296
B. Disclosing the Reason for an EEOC-Initiated Investigation	296
C. Management of Investigation.....	296
D. Launching the Investigation	297

E.	Stages of the Investigative Process.....	297
1.	Initial Letter From EEOC	297
2.	Scheduling the Initial Meeting and On-Site Investigation.....	298
3.	Obtaining Information by Initial Respondent Interviews.....	301
4.	Initial RFIs and Learning About Records and Data	305
5.	Post-Meeting Letter	306
6.	Model Request for Information	307
a.	Background Information.....	307
b.	Organizational Chart.....	307
c.	Names of Human Resource Staff.....	307
d.	Names of Selection Personnel	308
e.	Names of Personnel Recruiters.....	308
f.	Relevant Policies.....	308
g.	Job Descriptions.....	309
h.	Information on Applicants and Employees Hired	309
7.	Respondent Resistance to Data Requests	310
8.	Subsequent Respondent Interviews	310
9.	Respondent Depositions.....	310
10.	Interviews of Witnesses Other Than Respondent’s Officials	310
IX.	Resolutions, Settlements, and Closures.....	311
A.	Early Settlements with Negotiated Settlement Agreements.....	311
B.	Withdrawal of a Commissioner Charge	312
C.	Dismissal of a Commissioner Charge	313
D.	Issuance of a Commissioner Charge Decision.....	313
E.	Conciliation	313
F.	Notice of Right to Sue.....	314
CHAPTER 9. REPRESENTING RESPONDENTS DURING EEOC INVESTIGATIONS.....		315
I.	Introduction	317
II.	First Decisions: Using Lawyers and Early Resolution.....	317
A.	Using Lawyers.....	318
B.	Mechanisms for Early Charge Resolution	318

- 1. Mediation 319
- 2. Charge Dismissal 319
- 3. Direct Settlement 319
- 4. Predetermination Conciliation 319
- III. The Role of Respondent’s Lawyer During the EEOC’s Investigation 320
 - A. Investigating the Charge 321
 - 1. Evaluate the Charge Form..... 321
 - a. Does the Charging Party Have a Lawyer? 321
 - b. Are There Class Allegations? 321
 - c. Which EEOC Office Is Investigating? 321
 - d. How Has the EEOC Categorized the Charge? 322
 - 2. Communicate with the EEOC Investigator 322
 - 3. Consider EEOC Policy Guidance 323
 - 4. Avoid Pitfalls When Interviewing Witnesses..... 323
 - a. Ethical Considerations 323
 - b. Special Considerations When the Charging Party Is a Current Employee 324
 - c. Avoiding Retaliation or Claims of Retaliation..... 325
 - 5. Avoiding Publicity 327
 - 6. Avoiding Additional Charges 327
 - B. EEOC On-Site Investigations..... 328
- IV. Influencing EEOC Outcomes and Managing Risk..... 329
 - A. Persuading the EEOC..... 329
 - 1. Tone, Credibility, and Cooperation, and the Risks of Playing Hardball 330
 - a. Civility and Respect..... 330
 - i. Communicate Politely 331
 - ii. Treat All EEOC Staff Respectfully 332
 - iii. Respect EEOC’s Legal Judgments ... 333
 - b. Credibility and Reputation for Trustworthiness..... 333
 - i. Deal Honestly 334
 - ii. Respond Promptly and Accurately ... 335

2.	Avoid Legalese and Legal Formatting in Communications With the EEOC	335
B.	Evaluating Charges to Influence Outcomes	336
1.	Assessing Possible Outcomes	336
a.	Forecasting EEOC Evaluation of the Charge.....	336
b.	Action Adverse to a Class.....	337
c.	Practices of Particular Offices	337
d.	Cues of an Expanded Investigation.....	338
2.	Assessing Other Consequences.....	339
3.	EEOC Institutional Interests and Biases	339
4.	Political Influences on EEOC Decisionmaking	340
C.	Establishing Objectives	341
1.	Generally.....	341
2.	Basic Guidelines on Setting Objectives	342
a.	Routine, Factually Simple Charges	342
b.	Class Charges and Charges Challenging a Policy or Practice	342
D.	Eliminating and Minimizing Risks	342
1.	Early Resolution Strategies for Problem Charges.....	343
2.	Requests for Information	343
a.	Sequencing the Response	343
b.	Provide Simple Explanations First	344
c.	Irrelevant and Burdensome Requests.....	345
3.	EEOC Investigative Subpoenas.....	345
a.	Drawbacks to Subpoenas	345
i.	Prejudice to the Respondent’s Position.....	346
ii.	Greater Scrutiny of Respondent Compliance.....	346
iii.	Publicity.....	346
iv.	Injury to Reputation.....	347
b.	Advantage of a Subpoena	347
c.	Avoiding EEOC Subpoenas.....	348
4.	Avoiding or Limiting Class Investigations.....	348
E.	Consolidating Charges Across EEOC Offices	349
1.	Heightened Attention to the Charge.....	350

- 2. Is EEOC Coordinating? 351
- 3. Where Will EEOC Consolidate? 351
- F. Appealing to Higher EEOC Authority 352

- CHAPTER 10. RESPONDENTS’ POSITION STATEMENT 353
 - I. Introduction 354
 - II. The EEOC Request for a Position Statement 356
 - A. The EEOC Affirmatively Requests a Position Statement 356
 - B. Time for Submission 357
 - III. Determining Whether to Submit a Position Statement 358
 - A. Position Statement Is Not Legally Required 358
 - B. Reasons for Submitting a Position Statement 358
 - 1. Correcting Factual Misstatements 359
 - 2. Dealing With Threshold Bars to the EEOC’s Jurisdiction 359
 - 3. Supplying Additional Factual Information 360
 - 4. Focusing the Investigation 360
 - 5. Refuting Unfounded Allegations 361
 - 6. Establishing a Relationship of Trust 361
 - 7. Avoiding Alternative Investigative Techniques and the Issuance of Subpoenas 361
 - 8. Persuading the Investigator to Issue a Determination of Insufficient Evidence to Establish a Violation 362
 - 9. Discouraging Competent Plaintiffs’ Counsel 362
 - C. Limited Circumstances Where a Position Statement May Be Delayed or Not Submitted 362
 - 1. Mediation 363
 - 2. Issue Already Being Investigated or Litigated 363
 - 3. Charging Party Has Advised of Intent to Immediately Litigate 363
 - 4. Valid Threshold or Jurisdictional Defense 364
 - D. Position Statements and Arbitration Agreements 364

IV. Who Should Prepare the Position Statement.....	365
V. The Format of the Position Statement	366
A. Series of Answers	367
B. Letter Setting Out Respondent’s “Story”	367
VI. The Content of the Position Statement.....	367
A. Important General Points	367
1. Authoritative	368
2. Comprehensive.....	368
3. Reader Friendly.....	368
4. Consistent.....	368
5. Focused	369
6. Goal Oriented.....	369
B. Tone of the Position Statement.....	369
C. Introductory Paragraphs	370
D. Facts	370
1. Be Compelling and Convincing	370
2. Provide Evidence to Support the Facts	371
3. Presentation.....	371
E. The Legal Framework	372
F. Application of Facts to Law	373
G. Pointing Out Credibility Issues	375
H. Closing	376
I. Affidavits or Declarations	377
J. Don’t “Smear” the Charging Party.....	377
K. Additional Tips.....	378
VII. Supplemental Position Statements	379
VIII. Relation of the Response to Litigation	379
 CHAPTER 11. DISPOSITION OF CHARGES	 381
I. Introduction	384
II. EEOC’s Categories for Charge Resolutions	385
III. Charge Withdrawals.....	386
A. General Rule.....	386
B. Exceptions	387
1. Retaliation or Coercion Suspected.....	387
2. More Than One Aggrieved Individual	387
3. After a Cause Finding	388
4. Charges in Systemic Processing	388

C.	Procedures for Charge Withdrawal	389
1.	Written Request by Letter or on EEOC Form 154	389
2.	Request by Letter	389
3.	Form 154	389
D.	Effect of Approving Request to Withdraw Charge	391
E.	Effect of Denial of Request to Withdraw Charge	392
F.	Withdrawal Authority	392
IV.	Dismissals	392
A.	Dismissals for Reasons Other than a No Cause Determination	393
1.	Notice of Dismissal Form 161	393
2.	Reasons for Dismissals for Other than “No Cause”	393
a.	Failure to State a Claim and Late Filing ...	394
i.	No Jurisdiction	394
ii.	Untimely Filing	395
iii.	Lack of Standing	395
iv.	State Court Decision	395
b.	Respondents Cannot Be Located	395
c.	The Charging Party Dies or Is Otherwise Unavailable	396
d.	Charging Party Refuses Full Relief	396
e.	Private Lawsuit Filed	396
B.	No Cause Dismissals	397
1.	“No Cause” Does Not Mean No Cause	397
2.	No Cause Reviews	397
3.	Reconsideration	398
C.	Legal Consequences of a Dismissal	399
D.	Dismissal Prior to Charge Notice to Respondent	399
V.	Mediated Settlements	399
A.	Overview of EEOC Mediation	400
B.	Advantages to EEOC-Sponsored Mediation	401
C.	Drawbacks to Mediation	402
D.	The Process and Logistics	402
1.	The Mediators	402
2.	Cost of Mediation	403

3. Timing	403
4. “B” Charges Are Eligible for Mediation.....	403
5. The Offer to Mediate.....	404
6. Written Agreement to Mediate.....	404
7. Universal Agreements to Mediate	405
8. Confidentiality Agreement.....	407
9. Location of the Mediation.....	409
10. Duration of the Mediation.....	409
11. Who Attends.....	409
a. The Parties	409
b. Lawyers and Representatives.....	409
12. Mediation Format.....	410
13. Withdrawing From Mediation.....	410
14. Terms of Settlement Agreement.....	410
15. Failure to Reach Agreement.....	410
E. Participant Satisfaction.....	410
1. Satisfaction With the Process	411
2. Satisfaction With the Mediator	412
3. Influence of Lawyers on Participant Satisfaction.....	412
4. Impact of Satisfaction on Employer Participation in Mediation.....	413
F. What Works.....	414
1. Conduct That Facilitates Settlement	414
a. Flexibility and Openness	415
b. Other Conduct by the Parties That Facilitates Settlement.....	415
c. Other Conduct by the Parties’ Lawyer or Representative That Facilitates Settlement	416
2. Mediation Turning Points	416
3. Participant Behavior That Interferes With Settlement	417
4. Barriers to Resolution	417
VI. Predetermination Settlement Agreements	418
A. Three Types of Predetermination Settlements.....	418
B. Timing of Settlement.....	419
C. Differences Between Negotiated Settlements and Conciliation Agreements	420

D. Charges Subject to Predetermination Settlement.....	420
E. When the EEOC Will Join a Private Settlement ...	421
F. Advantages of Having EEOC Join the Settlement.....	421
G. Disadvantage of Having the EEOC Join the Agreement	422
H. Settlement Terms.....	422
1. Form of the Agreement When EEOC Is a Party	422
a. Heading.....	423
b. Identification of Charge	424
c. Release of Claims or Covenant Not to Sue	424
d. Discontinuance of the Investigation.....	425
e. Relief.....	425
f. Nonadmission of Liability	426
g. Court Enforcement.....	426
h. ADEA Waivers	426
i. Other Provisions	427
i. Provisions requiring future performance and monitoring	427
ii. Method of settlement payment.....	427
iii. Reporting	428
I. Acknowledgment of Settlement From the EEOC	428
1. Notice When the EEOC Terminates the Investigation	428
2. Notice When the EEOC Continues the Investigation	428
VII. Cause Findings	429
VIII. Notice of Right to Sue	431
CHAPTER 12. CONCILIATION PROCESS.....	433
I. Introduction	434
II. The Duty.....	435
A. The EEOC	435
1. Generally.....	435

2. EEOC Interventions	437
B. Charging Parties	438
C. Respondents	438
III. The Conciliation Process	438
A. Timing	438
B. Proposed Conciliation Agreement.....	439
C. Negotiations	442
1. Who Represents the EEOC?	442
2. Conferences With the Charging Party.....	442
3. Conferences With Respondent.....	443
4. Proposals.....	444
a. Substantial Relief.....	444
b. Questioning EEOC Proposals.....	445
i. EEOC Inflexibility	445
D. Private Settlement With Charging Party.....	446
1. Effect on Respondent.....	446
2. Effect on the Charging Party.....	447
3. Effect on EEOC	448
E. Conciliation Failure.....	448
F. Confidentiality.....	451
IV. Judicial Review of EEOC’s Good Faith
Conciliation	454
A. Willingness to Meet With the Employer	458
B. Willingness to Be Flexible About Timing	460
C. Willingness to Negotiate	461
D. Willingness to Provide Information on Claims or Identify Class Members	463
E. Where Both Parties Are at Fault.....	467
F. Lessons Learned.....	467
V. Remedies for Failure to Conciliate.....	468
CHAPTER 13. EEOC CONCILIATION AGREEMENTS	471
I. General Format of Conciliation Agreements.....	474
II. Parties to the Agreement.....	475
A. The EEOC, Respondent, and Charging Party	475
B. The EEOC and Respondent Only.....	475
III. Heading and Introduction	475
A. Heading	476
1. Standard Heading.....	476

2. Short Form	476
B. Introductory Statement.....	477
IV. General Provisions.....	478
A. Waiver of Right to Sue	478
1. Standard EEOC Proposal.....	478
a. When Charging Party Joins the Agreement.....	479
b. When Charging Party Does Not Join the Agreement	479
2. Multiple Nonparty Claimants	480
B. Reservation of Right to Sue to Enforce Agreement	480
C. Reservation of Right to Sue on Matters Not Covered by the Agreement.....	481
D. Statutory Compliance.....	481
E. No Retaliation	482
1. General Provision.....	482
2. Processing of Retaliation Charges	482
F. EEOC Review of Compliance.....	483
G. Duration of Agreement.....	484
1. General Provision.....	484
2. Contingencies and Extensions	485
H. Preservation of Rights of Absent Aggrieved Persons	485
I. Nonadmissions Clause	486
J. EEOC Representative for Notice	486
V. Employment Policies and Practices.....	486
A. Cessation Provision.....	487
B. Changes to Employment Policies or Practices.....	487
1. Recruitment and Hiring.....	488
2. Advancement Opportunities	489
3. Policy Implementation or Policy Modification.....	490
4. Internal Complaint Procedure	490
5. Diversity and Anti-Discrimination Training ...	491
VI. Remedies	492
A. Charging Party Relief.....	493
1. Monetary Relief	494
a. Back Pay	494

b.	Interest	494
c.	Compensatory and Punitive Damages	494
i.	Compensatory Damages	495
ii.	Punitive Damages	496
d.	Front Pay	497
e.	Liquidated Damages	497
f.	Payment Methods	498
g.	Attorneys’ Fees	498
2.	Nonmonetary Relief	498
a.	Nondiscriminatory Placement	499
i.	Hiring and Promotion	499
ii.	Discharge	499
b.	Benefits and Retroactive Seniority	500
c.	Training	500
d.	Transfer or Reassignment	500
e.	Prohibition Against Harassment and Retaliation	500
f.	Expunging Adverse Employment Action From Files	501
B.	Affected Relief in Class or Pattern-or-Practice Cases	501
1.	Monetary Relief	501
a.	Payments to Individuals	501
b.	Payment Methods	502
i.	Settlement Funds	502
ii.	Determining Eligibility for Payment From a Settlement Fund	502
iii.	Money Remaining in Settlement Fund After Distribution to Affected Class Members	502
2.	Nonmonetary Relief	503
a.	Unconditional Hiring and Promotions to Identified Victims	503
b.	Affirmative Action for Affected Class Members	503
VII.	Reporting Requirements	505
A.	Examples of Reporting Requirements Relating to Charging Party Relief	505
1.	Offer of Employment, Reinstatement, or Promotion	505

- 2. Back Pay or Other Payments 506
- 3. Expunging Records 506
- 4. Adverse Employment Actions 506
- 5. Posting of Notice..... 506
- B. Examples of Reporting Requirements for Class Relief 506
- VIII. Other Provisions 507
 - A. Notice Requirement..... 507
 - 1. The Notice Provision 507
 - 2. The Notice..... 508
 - B. Publication of Settlement 510
 - C. Compliance Reviews..... 510
 - D. Signatures 511
- CHAPTER 14. EEOC WORKLOAD: STATISTICAL DATA 517
 - I. Introduction 518
 - II. Charge Volume 519
 - A. Historical Growth in Charge Volume and the Backlog..... 519
 - 1. Charge Volume..... 519
 - a. Title VII 519
 - b. ADA, ADEA, EPA, and GINA 520
 - c. Commissioner Charges 521
 - 2. Growth of the Inventory 521
 - 3. Possible Reasons for Growth in the EEOC’s Charge Volume and Backlog..... 523
 - 4. Efforts to Reduce the Backlog 525
 - B. Statistics on Charge Receipts and Resolutions Year Over Year..... 526
 - III. Mediation..... 528
 - IV. Litigation 529
 - A. Number of Lawsuits 529
 - B. Number of Subpoena Enforcement Actions..... 531
 - C. Systemic Litigation and Its Impact on Litigation Volume 531
 - V. FOIA/Section 83..... 532
 - A. Statistics on Requests and Staffing 532
 - VI. Exhibits 535

Exhibit 14.1	Charge Statistics, FY 1992 Through FY 1996	535
Exhibit 14.2	Charge Statistics, FY 1997 Through FY 2012	536
Exhibit 14.3	All Statutes, FY 1992 Through FY 1996	538
Exhibit 14.4	All Statutes, FY 1997 Through FY 2012	540
Exhibit 14.5	EEOC Mediation Statistics, FY 1999 Through FY 2012	542
Exhibit 14.6	EEOC Litigation Statistics, FY 1992 Through FY 1996	543
Exhibit 14.7	EEOC Litigation Statistics, FY 1997 Through FY 2012	545
Exhibit 14.8	FOIA Requests: Received, Processed, and Pending FOIA Requests	548

PART III: EMPLOYMENT ACTIONS

CHAPTER 15.	EEOC SUBPOENAS AND SUBPOENA ENFORCEMENT LITIGATION	551
I.	Introduction	553
II.	Statutory Authority	553
	A. Title VII, the ADA, and GINA	553
	B. The ADEA and the EPA	554
III.	Administrative Process of Evidence Gathering	555
	A. Lack of Cooperation, Preservation of Evidence, and the Direct Suit Option	555
	B. Guidance to Personnel Regarding Obtaining Evidence	556
	1. Investigator	556
	2. Supervisor	556
	3. District Director	557
	C. Issuance of a Subpoena	557
	D. Forms of Subpoenas	558
	1. Testimony	558
	2. Production of Evidence	558
	3. Access to Evidence	559
	E. Issuing Officials	559

- F. Scope of the Subpoena 560
- G. Withdrawal of Subpoena 561
- IV. Responding to the Subpoena 561
 - A. Negotiating Limitations..... 562
 - 1. Generally..... 562
 - 2. Confidentiality Considerations 563
 - B. Judicial Review 564
 - C. Administrative Review 564
 - 1. Title VII, ADA, and GINA Cases..... 564
 - 2. ADEA and EPA Petitions..... 566
- V. The Enforcement Action..... 567
 - A. The EEOC’s Authority 567
 - B. Judicial Standards..... 568
 - 1. Shell Oil Notice Requirement Applied 571
 - a. No Obligation That EEOC Show Reasonable Cause 572
 - b. Court Will Not Consider Defenses to Charge..... 573
 - 2. Burden of Proof..... 574
 - 3. Standard of Review 575
- VI. Challenging the Subpoena..... 575
 - A. Challenge Based on Relevance of the Information Sought 575
 - 1. Geographic Scope 576
 - 2. Temporal Scope..... 578
 - 3. Categories of Discrimination Not Alleged in Charge..... 579
 - 4. Employment Practices Not Alleged in Charge 581
 - B. Effect of Resolution of the Underlying Charge..... 581
 - C. Effect of Defects in the Charge 584
 - 1. Timeliness of the Charge 585
 - a. Title VII, ADA, and GINA Subpoenas 585
 - b. ADEA and EPA Subpoenas 586
 - 2. Subpoena Respondent Not Named in Charge 587
 - D. Challenges Based on Laches 588
 - E. Challenges Based on Estoppel 590
 - F. Challenges Based on EEOC’s Jurisdiction..... 591

G. Challenges Based on Improper Purpose/Abuse of Process	593
H. Confidentiality Issues	595
1. Disclosure to the Charging Party	595
2. Disclosure to the Public	596
3. Employee Personnel Files	598
4. Employee Test Results	599
5. Testimonial Privileges	600
6. State Confidentiality Laws	601
7. Waiver of the Attorney-Client Privilege and Work Product Doctrine	602
I. Arguments Based on Employer’s Burden	603
1. Requiring Compilations of Information	604
2. Overbreadth	605
VII. Appealing the District Court’s Order	606
VIII. Related Consequences of EEOC Subpoena Enforcement Actions	607
A. Costs	607
B. Effect of Subpoena in Subsequent Investigations Involving the Same Respondent	608
C. Effect of Subpoena in Subsequent Litigation Brought by Charging Party	609
CHAPTER 16. EEOC ENFORCEMENT LITIGATION	611
I. Introduction	614
II. Statutory Authority for EEOC Litigation	614
III. Responsibility for EEOC Litigation	615
IV. Predicates to EEOC Litigation	616
A. Relationship Between the Charge and the Lawsuit	617
B. The EEOC’s Obligation to Investigate	619
C. Relationship Between Conciliation and the Lawsuit	621
V. Limitation on Actions	621
A. Statutes of Limitation Under Title VII, the ADA, and GINA	622
B. Statutes of Limitation in ADEA and EPA Cases	623

C. Laches.....	625
VI. EEOC Litigation Procedures	627
A. Conflict Rules for EEOC Trial Lawyers	627
B. Litigation Approval Process	628
C. EEOC Presuit Interviews	629
D. Filing Suit in Federal Court.....	629
E. Venue.....	630
F. EEOC’s Complaint.....	630
G. Emotional Distress Damages	636
VII. Discovery.....	637
A. Discovery Against the EEOC.....	637
1. Orders Compelling EEOC to Produce Discovery	638
2. Privileges.....	638
a. The Attorney-Client Privilege.....	638
b. The Common Interest Rule.....	640
c. Attorney Work Product.....	641
d. Deliberative Process Privilege	641
e. Informer’s Privilege	646
f. High Government Official Doctrine	647
g. Official Information Privilege.....	647
h. Sovereign Immunity	648
3. EEOC’s Obligation to Respond to Discovery Directed to Claimants	648
4. EEOC’s Obligation to Produce Claimants for Deposition	649
5. Rule 35 Examinations	649
6. Depositions of EEOC Officials and Employees.....	649
7. Interrogatories Seeking Charge Information...	652
8. Discovery of EEOC Database.....	652
9. Discovery From EEOC During EEOC Subpoena Enforcement Actions.....	652
VIII. Special Evidence Considerations For Conciliation Materials and Cause Determinations.....	652
A. Admissibility of Conciliation Materials.....	653
B. Admissibility of Cause Determination.....	654
1. District Court Discretion.....	655
2. Bench Trials Versus Jury Trials.....	658
3. Hearsay Objections to Admissibility	659

4. Prejudice or Confusion	660
IX. EEOC Motions for Sanctions	660
X. Attorney’s Fees	661
XI. EEOC “Pattern or Practice,” Systemic, and Class Lawsuits.....	663
A. Introduction	664
B. Systemic Litigation	666
C. Systemic Litigation Priorities.....	669
D. Pattern or Practice Litigation.....	670
1. What Is a Pattern or Practice?.....	670
2. How Pattern or Practice Cases are Different...	671
3. The Application of Continuing Violation to EEOC Pattern or Practice Cases	672
4. Applicability of Rule 23 and Opt-In Procedures of the ADEA and the EPA.....	673
5. EEOC Pattern or Practice Cases Must be Cohesive.....	674
6. EEOC Pattern or Practice Settlements Do Not Require Court Approval	674
7. The Proof Framework for EEOC Pattern or Practice Cases	675
a. Stage 1: Proof of a Discriminatory Pattern or Practice and Injunctive Relief.....	675
b. Stage 2: Individual Liability and Damages	677
8. Disparate Impact Cases.....	679
9. Recovery of Damages	682
10. Pattern or Practice Involving Discrete Decisions.....	682
XII. Intervention In Private Lawsuits.....	683
A. Procedures and Standards.....	683
B. Factors Relevant to EEOC’s Decision to Seek Intervention	688
C. Consequences of Intervention	689
1. Improving the Chances for a Successful Outcome.....	689
2. EEOC Interests and Original Plaintiff’s Interests May Diverge	690
3. Limitations on the EEOC’s Role.....	690

4. When the Original Plaintiff Only Is Dismissed.....	691
XIII. Injunctions During EEOC’s Investigation.....	691
XIV. Lawsuits to Enforce Settlements.....	694
XV. Recordkeeping Lawsuits.....	696
A. Records Relevant to Unlawful Employment Practices.....	696
B. EEO-1 Reports.....	698
C. Adverse Inference.....	699
XVI. Relationship Between EEOC Lawsuits and Private Litigation.....	700
A. Difference Between EEOC Lawsuits and Private Litigation.....	701
B. EEOC Suits in Addition to Private Lawsuits.....	701
C. Rights of Charging Party When EEOC Sues.....	702
D. EEOC Sues Without Consent From Charging Party.....	704
XVII. Arbitration and Litigation.....	704
A. Effect of Arbitration on EEOC Litigation.....	705
XVIII. Use of the News Media.....	705
CHAPTER 17. EXPERTS IN EEOC LITIGATION.....	711
I. EEOC’s Use of Internal Experts.....	712
A. Types of EEOC In-House Experts.....	712
B. The EEOC’s Use of Internal Experts Prior to Trial.....	713
1. Gathering Data.....	714
2. Analyzing Data and Processes.....	717
II. EEOC Use of Outside Experts.....	719
III. How EEOC Obtains and Manages the Services of Experts.....	724
IV. Admissibility of EEOC Expert Testimony.....	726
V. Strategy Considerations for Private Counsel in Selecting and Retaining an Expert.....	730
A. Finding and Retaining a Qualified Expert.....	730
B. Working With an Expert.....	733
1. The Expert’s Role.....	733
a. Consulting Experts.....	736
b. Testifying Experts.....	737
c. Experts in Conciliation and Mediation.....	738

2.	Communicating the Theory of the Case to the Expert	738
3.	Confidentiality and Discovery Issues.....	739
4.	The Expert’s Collection of Data	740
5.	The Expert’s Analysis: Draft and Final Reports	743
C.	The Expert at Trial.....	744
1.	Pretrial Assistance	744
2.	The Expert at Trial	744
CHAPTER 18	SETTLEMENT OF EEOC LITIGATION	747
I.	Introduction	750
II.	EEOC’s Approach to Settlement	751
A.	EEOC’s Settlement Goals	751
B.	General Counsel’s Settlement Guidance	752
C.	Delegation of Settlement Authority to Regional Attorneys	752
D.	Consent Decree as a Preferred Form of Settlement.....	754
III.	Settlement Terms by Category.....	754
A.	Introductory Provisions	754
1.	General Introductory Provisions	754
2.	Specification of Settled Charges	755
3.	Reservation of Rights.....	755
4.	Statement of Purpose	756
B.	Findings by the Court.....	757
C.	Non-Admission of Liability	758
D.	Injunctions Against Discrimination and Retaliation	759
E.	Non-Monetary Remedies, Generally.....	761
1.	Training.....	762
a.	Training Programs	762
b.	EEO Attendance at Training	765
c.	List of Attendees at Training.....	765
2.	Policy Changes.....	766
a.	Reaffirming EEO Policies.....	766
b.	Modifying Policies.....	766
c.	“Reviewing and Modifying” Policies	767
d.	Creating Policies	768
e.	Assuring Compliance With Policies	769

f.	Audits of EEO Policies and Practices.....	769
g.	Reservation of Right to Sue the Defendant Based on Policies	770
3.	Workplace Incentives	770
4.	Internal Complaint Reporting Mechanisms	771
5.	Validation of Tests and Other Selection Devices.....	774
6.	Filing EEO-1 Reports	776
7.	Posting of EEO Posters	776
8.	Compliance With Recordkeeping Requirements	777
9.	Segregating Medical Records	777
F.	Non-Monetary Relief for Individuals.....	777
1.	Non-Class Cases	777
a.	Removing Information From Personnel Files.....	778
b.	Apology	778
c.	Employment References.....	779
2.	Class-Type Cases	780
a.	Reinstatement of Discharged Employees.....	780
b.	Promotions.....	781
c.	Affirmative Action Recruiting, Hiring, or Placement	781
d.	Pension Enhancements	783
G.	Monetary Relief, Generally.....	784
1.	Standard Provisions.....	785
2.	Installment Payments	786
H.	Monetary Remedies, Class-Type Cases	787
1.	Identification of Affected Individuals	787
2.	Determining Monetary Entitlement	789
a.	Individual Amounts Specified in Consent Decree.....	789
b.	Claims Process to Determine Individual Payments.....	790
c.	Notice of Claims Process and Claim Form.....	790
d.	EEOC Will Make Final Decisions.....	794
e.	Use of a Settlement Administrator.....	794

3.	Allocating Back Pay in Statistical Cases	794
4.	Allocating Settlement Payments to Non-Applicants	795
5.	Appeals from EEOC Allocation Decisions.....	796
6.	Interest Earned by a Settlement Fund	796
7.	Establishing a Qualified Settlement Fund.....	797
8.	Distributing Monetary Relief	798
9.	Death of Class Member Before Receipt of Payment.....	799
10.	Confidentiality of Individual Payment Amounts	799
11.	Taxes	799
12.	Reversion of Settlement Funds to the Defendant.....	800
I.	Procedures for Court Approval of Class-Type Settlements	800
1.	Contents of a Notice of Settlement	802
a.	Claims and Defenses.....	802
b.	Resolution History, Class Member Identification, and Summary of Relief	802
c.	Claims Process, Releases, Comments, and Objections	804
2.	Fairness Hearings.....	804
a.	Factors That Influence the EEOC to Seek a Fairness Hearing.....	805
b.	Factors That Influence the EEOC Against Seeking a Fairness Hearing	805
c.	Procedures at the Fairness Hearing.....	806
3.	Court Approval of Distribution	806
J.	Reporting, Monitoring, and Record-Retention	806
1.	Reporting.....	807
a.	Reporting in a Disability Case	807
b.	Reporting in a “Class” Hiring Case	808
c.	Reporting in a Pattern-or-Practice Gender Hiring Case	808
d.	Reporting in a Sexual Harassment Case...	809
e.	Reporting on Training Requirements.....	809
f.	Reporting in a Religious Accommodation Case.....	810

2. Monitoring	810
3. Recordkeeping	811
4. Company Compliance Official	817
K. Dispute Resolution Procedure	819
L. Term of the Decree and Retention of Court
Jurisdiction	821
M. Notice Posting	824
N. Miscellaneous Provisions	829
1. Payment of Attorney's Fees	829
2. Definition of Terms	829
3. Notice to Successors	830
4. Address for Notices and Reports	831
O. Waivers and Releases	831
 CHAPTER 19
APPELLATE LITIGATION	845
I. Introduction	846
II. EEOC's Appellate Machinery	846
III. Appeals in Cases Where the EEOC Is a Party	847
A. How Cases Get to Appellate Services	847
1. Final Judgments	848
a. Time for Appeal and Regional Attorney
Recommendation	848
b. Appeal Decisions Are Made by the General Counsel.....	849
c. Protective Notice of Appeal.....	849
d. Considerations in Decision to Appeal.....	849
2. Interlocutory Orders.....	850
3. Appeals by Other Parties.....	851
4. Extraordinary Writs.....	851
B. How EEOC Cases Are Handled in Appellate
Services	852
1. Preliminary Steps	852
2. After Appeal Is Docketed.....	852
a. Procedural Matters.....	852
b. Settlement Negotiations.....	853
c. Briefing	854
d. Argument	854
e. Review of Decisions and Petitions to the Supreme Court.....	854

IV. Participation as Amicus Curiae	855
A. Court Procedures Governing EEOC Amicus Participation	857
1. EEOC Amicus Briefs in the Courts of Appeal	857
2. EEOC Amicus Briefs in the District Courts ...	858
3. EEOC Amicus Briefs in the Supreme Court...	858
B. EEOC Procedures Governing Amicus Participation	859
C. How EEOC Finds and Chooses Amicus Vehicles	860
1. Finding Cases.....	860
2. Choosing Cases for Amicus Participation.....	860
V. Obtaining Copies of EEOC Appellate Briefs	862
TABLE OF CASES	863
INDEX	889
ABOUT THE AUTHORS	927