PART III. LITIGATION GUIDE.....	655
CHAPTER 23. ENFORCEMENT ASSESSMENT QUESTIONS .....	657
I. Basic Contract and Factual Background Questions.....	662
A. Was There Any Discussion With the Former Employee About His or Her Going to a Competitor at the Time He or She Left?.....	662
B. Has Any Agreement Been Made With the Employee Related to His or Her Departure Such as a Severance Agreement That Might Impact the Noncompete Agreement?.....	663
C. Is There Any Evidence of Wrongdoing by the Employee Prior to the Departure? .....	664
D. Is There a Signed Contract or Other Form of Agreement That Is Documented in a Manner Admissible in Court as Evidence?.....	665
E. Is the Enforcing Party an Actual Signatory to the Agreement, or Has It “Inherited” the Agreement Because of Merger, Acquisition, or Other Corporate Transaction? .....	666
F. Was the Contract Supported by Adequate Consideration or Signed Under Circumstances That Are Adequate to Form a Binding Agreement? .....	666
G. Was Any Other Document Signed During Employment That Might Affect the Enforceability of the Agreement? .....	667
H. Does the Company Have Policy Statements (e.g., Code of Conduct or Employee Handbook Provisions) That Are Consistent With the Purpose of the Restrictions at Issue? .....	667
I. What State Law Options Are Available?.....	668

J.	What Venue Options Are Available? .....	668
K.	Does the Controlling State Law Allow for Reformation or Blue Penciling of Agreements to Enforce Them? If So, Under What Standard? .....	669
L.	Did the Employee Change Positions After Signing the Agreement? If So, Is the Agreement Still Applicable Based Upon Its Language? .....	670
M.	Did the Employee Resign or Was the Employee Terminated? .....	670
N.	What Is Known About the Employee’s New Position, and How Directly Does It Violate the Contract’s Restrictions? .....	671
O.	Is the Justification for the Restriction Implicated in a Way That Can Be Identified? Stated Another Way, How Is the Competitor Going to Gain an Unfair Competitive Advantage? .....	672
P.	Has a Demand Letter Been Sent? If So, Were Letters Sent to the Former Employee and the New Employer, or Just the Employee?.....	672
Q.	What Timing Issues Are Presented If Enforcement Is Pursued at This Time? .....	672
II.	Confidential Information Foundation Questions.....	673
A.	If Confidential Information Is a Significant Part of the Justification for the Agreement and Enforcement Action Being Taken, What Is the Lifespan of the Information’s Utility (e.g., at What Point Is It Stale)? ..	673
B.	What Evidence Is There Supporting the Confidential Nature of the Information at Issue? .....	673
C.	Why Is a Simple Confidentiality Agreement Standing Alone Not Enough Under the Circumstances?.....	674
D.	Is an Expert Witness Going to Be Necessary to Explain the Confidential Nature of the Information in the Industry and How It Can Be Used for Unfair Competitive Advantage? .....	675
III.	Customer Goodwill and Customer Nonsolicitation Questions .....	676
A.	How Is the Customer or Other Goodwill Interest at Issue Defined? .....	676
B.	Is There Sufficient Evidence of Customer Contact or Interaction to Support a Customer Goodwill Argument? If Not, What Is the Justification for the Restriction?.....	676

C.	Did the Employee Bring Customers to the Company's Business With Him or Her, or Were the Customers Developed While He or She Was at the Company?.....	676
D.	Is There a Reasonable Expectation of Continued Business From the Customer or Customers at Issue?...	676
E.	How Will the Company Prove Up the Reasonableness of the Specified Time Limitations?....	677
F.	Is the Level of Activity Prohibited (e.g., Solicitation Only, Servicing, Communicating About Business) Legitimate and Sustainable as a Restriction Under Applicable State Law? .....	677
G.	Is the State One That Requires a Geographic Limitation or Will a Customer-Specific Restriction Substitute for a Geographic Limitation?.....	678
H.	Is There Evidence That Customer Solicitation Is Already Occurring or Is It Just Threatened?.....	678
I.	Is the Evidence of Solicitation Activity Something That Can Be Proven Without Creating Significant Collateral Business and Customer Goodwill Damage?.....	678
IV.	Specialized Training Questions.....	679
A.	Is the Training Special and Unique or More in the Nature of General Experience or Trade Skill Development? .....	679
B.	How Long Has It Been Since the Training Was Provided? .....	679
C.	Can the Cost of the Training Be Identified? .....	679
V.	Traditional Noncompete Clause Questions .....	680
A.	Does the Clause Have the Kind of Boundaries Required Under State Law?.....	680
B.	What Evidence (Witnesses, Documents, Etc.) Can Be Presented to Establish That Boundaries Set in the Agreement Are Reasonable? .....	680
C.	If There Is a True Noncompete Clause in Addition to a Nonsolicitation of Customers/Prospects Provision, Why Is It Necessary/Reasonable to Have Both Restrictions? .....	680
D.	Is There Actual Lost Business? What, When, Why, and How Much Is at Stake? .....	681

E. Are There Other Means by Which the Ex-Employee Can Earn a Living? What Evidence Can Be Presented to Show That the Hardship to the Former Employee Is Not So Significant That Enforcement Should Be Denied? .....	681
VI. Questions About Nonsolicitation of Employees.....	681
A. Are the Terms of the Employee Nonsolicitation Clause Enforceable Under State Law? .....	681
B. What Evidence of a Violation or Threatened Violation Is Present? .....	682
