SEARCHES

A powerful resource enabling the flexible, automated delivery of targeted, topic-specific news and information to decision-makers and stakeholders.

Utilizing proprietary taxonomies with powerful search functionality, this cutting-edge service allows you to easily filter and search the information you need and to create customized reports you can share with your colleagues or clients.

CURRENT AWARENESS

Stay on top of crucial new developments based on the criteria most relevant to you. Track and filter by industry, topic, content source, keyword, and more, so you are prepared to provide informed guidance and take action.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Get a competitive edge — track and manage information that affects your potential business partners, clients, and customers.

COMPETITIVE INTELLIGENCE

Get information on topics such as buyouts, takeovers, officer and management changes, and shifts in your industry to establish benchmarks and identify risks and opportunities in the market.

FILTER AND EXTRACT NEWS EVERY DAY

- Use the most powerful relevance-recognition software on the market to deliver the most relevant news, through a single communication, so your audience knows exactly where to go for the latest updates.
- Leverage more than 30,000 additional sources, including major U.S. and world newspapers, business journals, global news bureaus, periodicals, influential blogs, government agencies, and more.
- Take advantage of our powerful and frequently updated proprietary taxonomies to group and focus your search results, filtering by thousands of topics, practice areas, locations, company names, and more.
- Use full Boolean with proximity and wildcard searching for advanced and targeted searches.

Deliver information no matter where you or your decision makers are.

No matter what I'm researching, I know I can find what I need in BNAConvergence.

I am very pleased with the new functionality and revamped user interface. I'm able to build more precise queries with the new Search Builder structure, and quickly browse and select from the extensive taxonomy. The Help resource is actually helpful, and the Convergence customer support team has always been responsive and friendly.
